Colonel Baker, senator from Oregon, Killed.

Washington, Oct. 21. General Stone or tion of ble command at Edwards Ferry and another at Herrison's Island. Skir mishing began between the enemy in the certain numbers and part of Gen. Stone's command, as early as the occommand, as early as the occommand, and continued without effect until five o'clock in the attention, when large reinforcements of the enemy appeared on our right, which was commanded by Col. Better, Senator from Oregon.

The Union forces engaged numbered one thousand and eight hundred, and were steat tacked by a force supposed to be from five tacked by a force supposed to be from five to ten thousand.

At this juncture, Col. Baker fell at the head of his brigade, gallantly cheering his men to the conflict. Immediately before men to the conflict. Immediately before he fell, he dispatched Maj. Young to Gen. Stone to apprise him of the condition of affairs. Gen. Stone immediately proceeded in person towards the right to take command, but in the confusion greated by the fall of Col. Baker, the right wing sustained a repulse with considerable idea.

Gen. Stone reports that his left wing retreated in good order and will hold possession of Harrison's Island and the arrangements. proaches thereto. Strong reinforcements will be sent forward to Gen. Stone during.

The remains of Col. Baker were removed to Poolesville, and will be brought to this a city on Wednesday. He held a commission as Colonel from the State of Pennsylvania, having lately received it at the hands of Governor Curtin, as commander of the California regiment.

On Saturday, when two companies of the road Twenty-Second Regiment, belonging to Gen. Key's Brigade, advanced within a mile of Fairfax Court House, they accorded tained from the inhabitants in that neight tained from the inhabitants in that neight to borhood that, when the rebels retired the condition of the roads were such that they were compelled to leave at pieces of are tillery behind, which remained there until the Sunday previous, when the rebels in force returned and took them away.

Capt. Mundee, Assistant Adjutant General for Gen. Smith's division, with a small Lewinsville to within a short distance of sult was the bringing off of about sixty loads of hay, and twelve hundred and fifty bushels of oats. Everything was quiet in that direction. The reconnoissance of Gen. McCall.

which advanced to Drainesville, on Sature day, returned this morning, the object of the expedition having been accomplished, and valuable information obtained. The main body remained at Drainesville on Sunday. Engineers under escort went to the right as far as the Potomac, three, miles distant, and to the left as far as the Loudon and Hampshire railroad. The rebel pickets were encountered by the cicort of the engineers, and sharp firing energ sued. The result was that five rebels were killed, one of whom belonged to the Tiger Regiment of Louisians. None of our men were injured.

Battle at Fredericktown! PILOT KNOB, Mo., Oct 22.—The following dispatch was received here this morn-

Fredericktown, Oct. 22, 1861. In company with Col. Plummer's com-mand, we haverouted the rebels of Thomp-son and Lowe, estimated at 6,000. Their loss was heavy. Our loss is small, and confined principally to the First Indiana. Cavalry. We captured four heavy guns. Lowe, the rebel leader, was killed. Major Gavitte and Capt. Hymon, of the Indiana Onvalry, were killed in a charge on a batery.

The command of Col. Plummer, referred to above, was en Friday morning last ordered forward by Gen. Grant. from Cape Girardeau, with instructions to move to-wards Fredericktown and cut of the retreat of Thompson and Lowe's army.—. This force consisted of Marsh's 18th Illi-, nois Regiment, a section of Taylor's battery and Stewart and Leperman's companies of cavalry, all from Qairo; also part of Piummer's 11th Missouri, a part of Ross' 21st Illinois and a section of Campbell's battery, all from Cape Girardean.— The force from this point was composed of the 10th Illinois, Col. Carlin, 38d Illinois, Col. Hovey; 21st Illinois, Col. Alexander; 8th Wisconsin, Col. Murphy; 1st Indiana cavalry, Col. Baker, Capt. Hawkins' Independent Wissourf Cavalry, and four for dependent Missouri Cavairy, and four 6-pounders and two 24-pounders cannon, under Msj. Schofield, of the 1st Missouri Light Artillery.

The Harriet Lane arrived up from Indian Head last night. She reports that new brtteries have been erected at Mathian whereby no drugs or galvanic battery are used. Cold weather is the time when the apparatus can be used to its best advantage. Medicing antiemen and their families have their teeth extracted by my process, and are ready to testify as to the safety and painlessness of the operation, what ever has been said by persons interested in asserting the contrary having no knowledge of gry process. point yesterday, threw some anot into the woods, and the fire was returned by some new batteries of eightoen heavy guns. Immediately thereupon the woods and underbrush were cleared away, exposing the batteries to view. Yessels in passing this point are obliged to hug the Virginia shore, and are exposed to fire for a distance of some four or five miles in developing it. The river men report that the rebels have a number of seine boats and long boate concealed in the creeks and inlets BOWN & TETLEY, a crossing up and the sublivious sublivi ness and despatch cannot be excelled by any other office in the city. BOYS AND YOUTHS' BOOTS, Boys and Youths' Boots,
