In the Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday afternoon, the case of Commonwealth vs William Fortner, of Elizabeth, indicted for murder in killing Benjamin F. The Atlantic Monthly, for November, is on cur table from the same enterprising dealer. It, too, is at tractive, opening with a sketch of George, Sand, the authores, and, with other choice matter, two good articles, entitled: "Why has the North felt aggrieved with England" and "The Contrabands at Fortress Monroe." Particulars of the Battle near Edward's Ferry --- Another Skirmish---General Lander Wounded.

Puckesville, October 23 -The foilor g report of the battle of Ball's Bluff, mid way between Conrad's Ferry and Edward's Ferry, and opposite Harrison's Island, which occurred yesterday, is gleaned from authentic sources:

and Quartermaster Howe, of his staff, with a detachment of two hundred men, to scout Virginia shore in the direction of ceaburg. They crossed from the island the shore, and executed the order by approaching within three-fourths of a mile Leesburg, returning to their starting point about ton o'clock at night, discovering, as they supposed, a small camp one mile or more from Leesburg. On reports ing to Col. Devin, the latter, with about three hundred men, pushed forward, as directed by Gen. Stone, in the same locals ity, with orders to destroy the camp. At sybreak the scouts returned to Col. Devin, who remained with his command concesed, and word was sent back that no enemy hose splendid silver-plated forks, at the was in sight. Capt Philbrook's company was in sight. Capt. Initionals company took an advanced position, while the remaining companies were concealed as a reserve, in case of an attack on the advanced position. vance. When about a mile and a half from the river, and five hundred yards in advance of Col, Devin's reserve, Capt. Philbrook, accompanied by Col. Davin in person, attacked and drove back a compa-by of Mississippi riflemen, and then fell back to the reserve concealed in the rear on the appearance of a body of rebel cav-

> In the skirmish, Capt. Philbrook had some difficulty in getting near enough to the enemy for his smooth bore guns to have much effect, whereas the others used ing range rifles on our forces. At daylight, and at the same hour that Colonel Devin's command left the shore to make the advance, Col. Lee, of the 20th Massachusetts, sent over one company of his regiment, which remained on the shor o cover the return of Colonel Devin. The Colonel, however, maintained the ground nd was reinforced during the morning by 300 more of his regiment, under Lieuter nt Colonel Ward. About one o'clock be was attacked by a considerable force of tflemen, who attempted to outflank him Pearing that they might be successful and after resisting them for some time Colonel Devin slowly retreated, in perfect order, to the river, where General Baker had arrived with a battalion of the Califormia regiment, commanded by Lieut. General Baker then took command, first complimenting Colonel Davin for the sucesstul resistence to a superior force, and giving his command, now less than 600 nen, the right of the line battle, the centre and left being formed of about 300 of the Massachusetts 20th, under Colonel Lee, and the California battalion, of about 500 in number, under Lieut. Col. Wister. Two nountain howitzers, commanded by Lieut French, and one piece of the New York battery, commanded by Lieut. Bramhall,

An order came from General Baker to throw two companies of the 15th Magsachusetts to the centre, which was immedistely executed. This produced an impresing a cannon forward with his shoulder to the wheel, when he was pierced with six balls. He was evidently the object of the enemy's sharpshooters. After this there was a cessation of the fire for a few moments, during which Col. Cogswell, of the Tammany regiment, arrived with two companies, and he being the senior officer, companies, and he being the senior officer, the command devolved on him. In a short time it became evident to Col. Cogswell that the day was lost, and he thought it best to cut his way through to Edward's Eferry, where Gon. Gorman was in charge, throwing over reinforcements, by direction of General Stone, who was within sight of the battle field at Edwards' Ferry, directing general movements.

An order was now issued to transfer the libing everything. Maj. Newby had a narrow escape from capture, being constituted to bed from dangerous illness. One of his servants was killed and the other sight of the battle field at Edwards' Ferry,

The only means of conveyance to the island was a large boat, capable of carrying about 40 persons, which was overcrowded and swamped. The troops marching along the shore made a desperate resist-known to have been drowned in the waters of the Potomac.

The behavior of our troops before a superior number of the enemy was marked by noble bravery and endurance. Near the close of the action, and after the day was considered irretrievable lest, two companies of the Tammany regiment, which had instarrived. made a desperate charge had just arrived, made a desperate charge on the bar, and while ashore were attacked on the enemy, but were met with a terrific by the rebels; but only one of their shots fire. It is probable that the officer who took effect, and that struck the Richmond York Ninth battery, lost one of his guns, and was himself wounded severely, but Not one person was killed or wounded not fatally.

The gallant Lieut. French, of the how. itzer battery, fired four shots with his own hands, after the day was lost and his own men scattered. He was shot in the left breast and ankle, but not mortally. On reaching the island, which he did by throwning his sword and revolver into the river

Most of the wounded have been cor yed to their respective encampment hos-

The enemy's force was very large and heir positions were well selected, from familiar knowledge of the ground. There is at present no means of ascer-taining the less of the enemy, but it must have been immonse, as our fow pieces of artillery were served with accuracy and terrific effect. It is proper to state in connection with the foregoing, that Gen. Stone's orders to Gen. Baker were to advance a brigade, including a battery to the support of Col. Devin, and to attack the enemy in force only in case of a knowledge of their inferior numbers, and of his ability to defeat them, but under no consideration to bring on a general engagement between the main forces of both sides. Enwards' Ferry, Oct. 24.—During skirmish last evening, nearly opposite this point, Gen. Lander received a painful flesh wound in his right leg. The ball has been extracted and no danger to life or imb is apprehended. Our pickets now extend about a mile in-land from Edwards' Ferry and about the same distance up Goose creek, occupying the bridge. The enemy has also extended their pickets one and a half miles up the river towards Conrad's Ferry. The enemy widently selected our officers for the marks of his riflemen.

half past three o'clock, the rebels attacked Col. Wilson's position on Santa Rosa Island in force—Company E of the 3d infantry; Capt. Hildt and 27 men of Com-pany A. Ist artillery—85 men in all, under dejor Vodges, met the enemy some dislance above Camp Brown. Major Vodges was taken prisoner immediately and Capt. Hildt assumed the command and engaged he enemy. The loss in this struggle was 4 milled, 21 wounded and 8 prisoners. The enemy's loss is much larger. Eleven of the robels were found dead in one heap. Major Annold arrived after daylight the assistance of Captain Hildt. The comnand proceeded to the point where the rebels disembarked, and as their steamers were just leaving a destructive fire was opened on them. The rebels left behind them on the island 22 killed, 5 wounded and 32 prisoners. Many of their wounded vere carried away on the boats. Captai Bradford and Lieut. Elms were killed hree of their officers were captured—or them is Lieut. Jaynes, formerly of the United States Marines. He is badly wounded. General Anderson, who was it ommand of the robels, was wounded in the arm. After disembarking, the enemy acknowledged their loss to be over one hundred. In addition to the loss on our ida-above stated-the Zouaves lost nine killed in their camp and eleven takes The details of the fight of Santa Rose say the rebels' forces, 1500 strong, landed on the island from three steamers about four miles above Wilson's camp. Their landing was effected at about two o'clock in the morning. The night was very dark. They rapidly formed in three columns and proceeded silently towards the Zouaves battery, commanded by Lieut. Bramhall, were in front of the centre just previous to the commencement of the action. The attack was commenced by the enemy on our right, but was soon directed more heavily on the centre and left. For about two hours the battle-raged terrifically—complete shower of leaden haif fell. Three several times the left of the line made an advance, but were compelled to return as often. The right was better protected and held their position.

An order came from General Baker to Comp.

Fort Pickens was by this time thoroughly aroused, and three commpanies of romlars came to their assistance. The sion that the battle was going against us, but caused no confusion or dismay. The left was hard pressed, but remained firm. About this time the news spread that Gen. Baker was killed while in the act of pushing a cannon forward with his shoulds to upon them, killing and wounding a large number. The rebels finally reached the boats, but the steamers were over 500 yards from the beach, and our men poured repeated volleys into the crowded mass.

Every bullet told, and by the shouts and confusion of the rebels it was evident we had obtained ample satisfaction for the insults to our flag. The regulars behaved nobly.

Great credit is due to Captains Robertleft, which was executed as calmly as at a battalion drill. Col. Cogswol, soon became satisfied of the imoosibility of reaching Elwards' Ferry as desired, and gave an order to fall back towards the river, which was executed as well as the circum, which was executed as well as the circum, which was executed as well as the circum, which was executed as well as the circum wounded and 9 taken prisoners. Those-who could swim plunged into the water, many carrying their arms with them, and others throwing them into the river to prevent them falling into the enemy's hands. Some escaped by availing themselves of the darkness, and the heavy wooded banks, but several are known to have been drowned in the waters of the Potomac.

The behavior of our troops before a suappeared in front and gave the order to make the charge was a secession officer, and was mistaken by our men for one of their commanders.
