We are indebted to the Superintendent of the Merchants' Exchange for the following interesting extract from a detter from an officer of the U.S. steamer Flag, dated off Charleston, Oct. 16:-"Yesterday we saw a ship standing in, evidently intending to run the blockade. We started in pursuit, but they succeeded in running her ashore, and all hands landed before overtaking her. We boarded her and found her to be the ship Thomas Wattson, formerly of Philadelphia, from Liverpool, of and for Charleston, laden with salt, flannel and blankets. The flannel and blankets we succeeded in getting on board the Flag, and then set the ship on fire, which is now burning and nearly consumed. The U. S. sloop of war Vandalia will shortly leave for Philadelphia. All enjoy good health. A. H. W." The Secretary of the Navy received

Goldsborough, dated ship Minnesota, Hampton Roads, Oct. 21:-SIR:-By the Vandalia, which arrived here last night, I am informed by Captain Marston, of the Roznoke, that he merchant ship Thomas Wattson, one of those to which you called my attention a short time since, was burned to the waters edge on the 15th inst., while ying aground on Stony Reef by our blockading vessels off Charleston. It was in attempting to get into Charleston in spite of the blockade and the pursuit of our cruisers, that she run on this reef. No arms were found among her cargo. It was made up of salt, blankets, flannels and a few other things. She had various national flags on board; and among them a Confederate flag.

Respectfull, your obedient servant, S. M. GOLDSBOROUGH, Flag Officer. To Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy.
