The Fund for the Belief of Volunteers

The County Commissioners, as we learn rom an official source, yesterday handed the duplicates for the two mill tax, levied for the relief of volunteers' families, over o the County Tressurer, for collection. Up to this time, owing to a misunderstanding concerning the mode of collection, but a small proportion of this tax has been paid in. Now those who are in arrears should at once call on the Treasurers and pay their share of the tax, which will be needed immediately. So far the OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY come in rapidly there will be no money wherewith to supply the necessaries of life to the dependents of the brave defen-

From present appearances we fear that the tax levied will not suffice, at the present rate, until spring. The two mills levied will produce less than $50,000, and the amount paid out in the seven weeks the Commissioners have had the matter in charge, is as follows: No. of Applicants. Amount Paid

City of Pittsburgh...... 77 $23,977 08 2.302

The aggregate is large, but it is apparent that the money has been judiciously distributed, the average to each family for the whole seven weeks being a little over $9. Less would certainly avail the recipients nothing, yet, even with this small pittance to each the whole tax levied will be exhausted by the middle of January. Of course paying out must then cease—Then, what will become of the destitute, left without means of sustenance in midwinter? Something must be done to re-plenish the fund before it is exhausted, and he sooner the work is commenced the better. Who has any suggestion to make in this serious emergency? Recovery of Stolen Goods. On last Sunday night it was discovered that some expert thieves had entered the depot from the canal side, opened a box of overcoats and carried off the whole lot, thirty six in number. Early in the week, officer Haoks ett of Cleveland, formerly Deputy Marshal in that district and now, we believe, at the deletative police and depoting. tached to the detective police and devoting special attention to the business of the leveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, was sent here for the purpose of seeking out the thieves. Thursday afternoon: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, )

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 31, 1866.

To the Hon. Simon Cameron, Secretary of War; Sir: For more than three years I have been unable, from a hurt, to mount a horse with much pain. Other and new infirmi ties, dropsy and vertigo, admonish me that a repose of mind and body, with the appliances of surgery and medicine, are necessary to add a little more to a life already protracted much beyond the usual span of man. It is ur der such circumstances, made doubly painful by the unnatural and unjust rebellion now raging in the Southern States of our so late prosperous and happy Union, that I am compelled to request that my name be placed on the list of army officers retired from active service.—

As this request is founded on absolute right, granted by a recent act of Congress, I am entirely at liberty to say that it is with deep regret that I withdraw myself in these momentous times, from the orders a President who has treated me with listinguished kindness and courtesy duty, and of universal activity and persecutive in this vicinity bearing arms verence. And, to you, Mr. Secretary, been recently in this vicinity bearing arms whom I now officially address for the last segainst the authority and the forces of the United States, have returned to their forces of the United States, have returned to have the honor to remain.
