Col. LEHMAN .- Colonel T. F. Lehman has recently resigned the Lieutenant Colonelship of Colonel Black's regiment, and has been appointed Colonel of the 103d regiment, now rendezvousing at Kittanning, where it was partially organized by Colonel Finlay. He has now entered mon his duties at Camp Orr, and will complete the organization of the regiment as soon as possible. He is a capital officer and will be exceedingly popular with his many of them. REBEL PRISONERS FROM THE KANAWHA. The Wheeling Press of Monday says: On Saturday night, about 12 o'clock, Serg't S. S. Reed, of the Seventh Regiment of Ohio Volunteers, arrived here from Charleston, Kanawha, with eight egionists arrested and sent hither by Col. Tyler, now in command of the post there, and lodged them all at the M'Lure of late And Col. Tyler has thought prop-Charleston and vicinity, and place them the Union men of that region who have been carried off. The names of those brought down by Serg'th Reed are as follows: Jacob Goshorn, D. J. W. Clarkson, R. W. Clarkson, John P. Anderson, P. A, Groves, L. D. Wilson, A. T. Laidlie, Thomas Waggoner. Some of these are among the most prominent citizens of Charleston. The Clarksons are the broth ers of one of the leaders of the guerrillas who have been firing into the boats upon the Kanawha, and they, as well as some of the others, have been very open-mouthed in their expressions of hostility to the Union and sympathy with the secession forces. There were several others also brought from Malden and vicinity, among whom we note the names of Moses Nor-ton, Elijah Rook, Henry Wood, —Grogan, Charles Hendrick and Jas. Fry. The Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry. This body of men, commanded by our fellow-citizen, Col i David Campbell, is now the finest and largest in the volunteer service. At the beginning of the week Col. Campbell had eleven companies in his command and was to have five more from Camp Curtin in a few days. All these, with the exception of one company, were recruited in Western Pennsylvania, three we believe, from Allegheny county, viz: those of Capts. Herron, Coltart and Young. They are a line, hardy set of men, well mounted and eqlupped, and admirably drilled. Being in such excellent condition for service, they are naturally anxious to be doing something and great was the exultation a few days since when it was rumored that the regiment was to move Westward. Forage is scarce and it is probable that some of the cavalry regiments will be sent West into Winter quarters. We congratulate Col. Campbell on his success in organizing this fine regiment and hope he may win fame at its head. Even now he is considered one of the best officers in the service and destined to be promoted at an early day. Lieut. Col. Childs, of the same regiment, is also deservedly popular and his head-quarters at the Kirkwood House, Washington City, are generally thronged.

GOOD APPOINTMENT. - A special despatch from Washin ton City announces the appointment of Samuel A. Purviance, who recently resigned the position as At-torney General of Pennsylvania, as Consul General to Calcutta. Mr. Purviance is a gentleman of ability and undoubted integrity and the appointment is generally satisfactory.

THE FIRST VIRGINIA REGIMENT has now four full companies, and two lacking but very few to make up their complement, in Camp Carlile, and four other companies at New Creek. Those here and now full will probably leave for General Kelley's beadquarters to day or to-morrow and the other two companies should be filled up and follow as speedily as possible - Weeling Press Monday.

VIOLENT ASSAULT. - A man named Nicholas Schnelder was arrested by the Mayor's police last evening, charged with oing a party to a violent assault on a man named Uhlman in the Eigth Ward. The resecutor alleges in his information that Michael Glennon entered his house, and, vithout any cause, endeavored to arrest tiff in Error, and by Scott and Kittle him: that he went away and returned with a warrant, and accompanied by Henry Rosefelt and Schneider. Glennou struck im on the head with a heavy club, injuring him severely. Then the three continued to abuse and insult him repeatedly, Schnelder kicking him several times. This, of course, is only one side of the story, yet it would seem that the assault was unpro oked and violent.
