

THE PRESIDENT AND "A SEVERE WAR."

Under this heading the Philadelphia Press of Thursday contains a long editorial, showing how moderate President Lincoln has been, as a paragon, since his accession to the Presidency of the United States.

THE LATE ELECTION.

The elections held this week have resulted in New York in the election of the Union ticket by one hundred thousand majority at least.

THE REBEL MINISTERS.

A private letter from the United States consul, at Nassau, N. P., dated October 28, states that there have been several arrivals from the blockade.

THE REBEL MINISTERS.

A teacher was endeavoring to explain a question in arithmetic to a boy. He was asked, "Suppose you had one hundred pounds and were to give away eighty pounds, how would you ascertain how much you had remaining?"

SECRETARY SEWARD.

That large salaries and big names give currency to a great deal of nonsense, is strikingly exemplified in Mr. Seward's predictions. For the last twelve months he has been engaged in predicting all sorts of absurdities.

BLACK JOHNSON.

I had no leisure to take a survey of my present position. He was a singular looking individual, about middle aged, with a tall, muscular person, which was clothed in a well greased and shiny suit of buckskin.
