To this address of the delegation, the President replied as follows:
GENTLEMEN: —I thank you for the address which you have presented to me in behalf of the people of Baltimore. I have leplored the calamities which the sympathy of some misguided citizens of Maryland had brought down on that patriolic, and heretofore flourishing State. The prosperity of Baltimore up to the 19th of April, was one of the wonders produced by the American Union. He who stran-gles himself from whatever motive, is not more unreasonable than were those citizens of Baltimore, who, in a single night, destroyed the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the Northern Pennsylvania Railroad, and

From the day when that mad 'transact tion occurred, the government of the United States has been diligently engaged treated as outlaws and enemies of God in endeavoring to restore those great avenues to their former usefulness, and, at the same time, to save Baltimore and Maryland from the danger of complete ruin through an unnecessary and unnatural rebeliion. The River-Last evening at twilight there were seven feet two inches water in the channel and at a stand. The weather during the day was very unpleasant for out door tran The steamers Anglo Saxon, She-lango and J. S. Pringle, were advertised to leave incinnati for this port on Thursday, The Tycoon, Capt. Dean, had arrived from this port. Z no. The side wheel passenger steamer, Undine, Capt. M. A. Cox, leaves this day positively. for Ga lipolis and intermediate ports. This boat makes weekly trips between this city and Gallipo lis, and is already an established favorite. Capiain Cox is a thorough steamboatmen, and a clever gen-tleman Mr. James C. MeVay has charge of the ffice. I here could be no better selection. We congratulate the people of Gal ipolis in having so fine a boat paying them weekly visits. The steamer Fred. Lorenz was to eave St. Louis for this pert on Tuesday, with a full cargo of produce. The first class passenger steamer, Arizonia, Capt. S. Shitman, leaves this day posi rely for Saint Louis, and intermediate ports. By Conway and Bausman, a pretty strong team.

The A No. 1 passenger steamer ocket, Capt. John Wolf, leaves this day, at 10 a 1. for Portsmouth and intermediate ports. We take pleasure in recommending this boat to our tiends. The first clerk is Capt. C. B. Hurge one of the best officers of our acquaintance. The Minerva, Capt. Gordon, is the Wheeling packet for to-day. 12 m. is the hour of The splendid passenger steamer, lelno te, Capt. A. McGowin, leaves this day for St. Louis and intermediate ports. This best has un-surpassed accommodations, having just underions, baving just under gone complete repairs. Capt. McG clerk, Mr. C. H. Lorenz, would make a less worlby boat popular. Our young friend Calhoun will assist in the office. Our advertising columns notes the fact that Capt. Rogers' flue steamer, Diadem, is announced for St. Louis. She will have despatch. Capt S. A. Reno's floe packet, Saint Louis, leaves for the "Mound City" on Saturday. Passengers and shippers will bear this in mind. It will be seen by reference to our dverusing columns that the A.
