They are attached to Captain Chase's company, from Titusville, Crawford county, and belong to Col. Maxweil's regiment. It must not be supposed, however, that they sppeared at the office in war costume, with tomahawk and scalping knives dangling from their belts. They had on the ordinary army overcoat, and looked very much like other soldiers, only their features were more bronzed, and the high cheek bones, and coarse, straight black hair core to the total company of the total company and guilt of murdering prisoners. We therefore sent them to Portsmouth, until they could be sent on. We have a report that, on Monday, Jenkins and his force were attacked near Barboursville, by Platt's Zouaves: that, as soon as the battle commenced, Jenkins killed the prisoners they had taken, and that our friend Whaley,) Member of Congress,) with most of the others was killed, except two or three who made their escape.
