INTEMPERANCE -- On Siturday hight. about eleven o'el ck, Coroner Bostwick body of a lad five years old, named John McKenna, who had died during the ovenhouse, which is on Liberty street, in the vicinity of Wesley Chapel, ir company condition, learning over a pool of but, if at all valid, are sutsequent in lien blood from a wound caused by a fall; the Delived Company boy dead in bed and a younger child of Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company yo years wretched from neglect. A jury of inquest was summoned, to whom the besotted mother stated that the boy had come in during the morning, lain down and slept all day until abou! five o'clock in the evening, when he took convulsions and died. The neighbors said the family were much addicted to drinking and a woman who lived in the house had taken away a square black bottle, which had been full but then contained but a small quantity of whisky The boy, it appeared, had and had been seen under its influence. De Kearns held a post mortem examination and gave it as his opinion that the child came to his death from convulsions induced by alcoholic narcotism. The jury found a verdiet in accordance with the

Prior to the verdict, officer Strain had arrested the parents of the child and sent them to the tombs, under the belief that there might have been some foul play in Yesterday morning the Mayor sent them home.

This case is a terrible commentary upon the evil results of intemperance, and adds one more to the many instances already on tecord.

Court, on Saturday morning, William L. Hirst, of Philadelphia, applied for aspecial injunction, based upon a bill in equity hich John Hulseman and George Brinkworth are complainants and James Reems and Charles B. Sinor defendants. The latter gentlemen have received from the return judges certificates of their election as members of Council for the city of Philadelphia, and the injunction asked for by the complainants, rival candidates for the same position, is to prevent the computation of certain returns and to keep the respondents from taking their seats in Council. The application was based upon affidavits from certain officers in Colonel McLane's regiment, in camp at Bladens-burg, setting forth that no elections had been held in their companies, and tha fraudulent returns, purporting to be from their companies, had been computed by the return judges. The application was urged by Mr. Hirst and resisted by James ggs, Eq., who appeared on behalf of the respondents. The matter was fully argued and the Court took the papers

NARROW ESCAPE On Friday a lac about twelve years of age very narrowly escaped drowning at the wharf In attempting to jump from the steamer Angle Saxon on board the Bay City, which steamer was just landing, he went down between the boats into the river. Mr. J. A. Dales, clerk of the Bay City, who hapened to be standing near by at the time, succeeded, with great difficulty, in getting hold of the drowning by before he sunk the third time, and, with the assistance of a second party, drew him cut of the water. The poor boy, although badly frightened, was uninjured.
