SOAP, SOAP, SOAP, SOAP, SOAP

THE CHEMICAL OLIVE ERASIVE SOAP manufactured by S. C. & J. H. SAWYER, is acknowledged to be the most serviceable of any kind yet offered to the public. Its superior advantages are found in its cheapness, saving of labor, and its efficacy in removing grease, paint, tar and dirt without injuring the skin, or in the least wise damaging the finest quality of goods. It can be used with all kinds of water.

Reference is made with pleasure to the subjoined certificates, emanating from gentlemen well known in this community, and who had every facility afforded of seeing it fully and fairly tested.

Quartermaster's Department of the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Regiments, Pa. Vols.

"Sawyer's Chemical Olive Erasive Soap" having been used very extensively in our Regiments, we have no hesitation in certifying that it was found admirably adapted to the use of the soldiers, and decidedly the most superior Soap which could be procured for the service.

BY TELEGRAPH.

By Yesterday's Telegram.

Arrival of the Steamship Bohemian.

PORTLAND, November 26.—The steamship Bohemian, from Liverpool, has arrived, with dates to the 14th instant, and by telegraph, via Londonderry, to the 14th.

FRANCE.—The Paris Moniteur, of the 14th, contains decrees nominating M. Fould as Minister of Finance, M. De Larcquello, late Minister of Finance, to the post of Senator. The Moniteur also publishes a letter from the Emperor to the Minister, approving M. Fould's financial programme and acknowledging that the budget should be confined within invariable limits. The Emperor says, the only efficacious means to attain this end is to resolutely abandon the faculty which appertains to me of opening fresh credit in the absence of the Chambers. I am determined to introduce changes, and the Senatus Consultus, which will be presented to the Senate on the 21 of December next, will contain this resolution, and determine your Budget and those of the appointed Ministers, by large sections. In renouncing a right which equally appertained to the sovereigns over constitutional ones, who have preceded me, may it be a useful thing towards insuring the right administration of the finances. Faithful to my origin, I neither regard my prerogatives as a sacred deposit which cannot be touched, nor as a heritage from my ancestors, which must be transmitted intact to my son. Elected by my people, and representing these interests, I shall always abandon without regret every prerogative for the good of the public, and shall likewise preserve unshaken in my hands all the power which is indispensable for the tranquility and perpetuity of the country.

SPAIN.—Gen. Prim has been appointed military and political chief of the Spanish Expedition to Mexico.

AUSTRIA.—The Imperial Rescript in reply to the Crotian diet has been communicated to the Reichsrath. It expresses a regret that Crotia should have forgotten that when the Emperor granted her those constitutional instructions which circumstances rendered necessary, it was the reservation that the Unity of the Monarchy might be maintained. For this reason, continued the rescript, the Crotian diet must now be dissolved. It will be reassembled hereafter on the basis of the diplomas of October and February.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—The sales of cotton for the week were 105,000 bales. The market closed quiet and unchanged for American descriptions, but others have advanced 1/64d. The sales on Friday were 12 000 bales, closing firm. Breadstuffs were quiet and unchanged, excepting Corn, which was tending downward; mixed, 32/@32s. 6d. Provisions are dull.

LONDON, November 14.—Consols for money 93 3/4@94.

The steamer City of Baltimore was signaled off Liverpool.

Attack on Fort McRae.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—A passenger says that the Norfolk Day Book has a dispatch from Richmond to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.—Parties who read the paper say that the Niagara and Colorado engaged Fort McRae, which briskly returned the fire, and that the vessels were damaged and had to haul off; that Pickens was firing on the Navy Yard. This is the substance of the report.

One version of the affair at Pensacola says that on Friday, Pickens opened on the Navy Yard and Barracks—that the Colorado and Niagara participated, and had to haul off very much damaged. This all comes through secession sources, and must be received with due allowance.

Late from Missouri.

ROLLA, Mo., Nov. 26.—The reconnoitering party, under command of Captain Bose, from Gen. Asboth's division, which left early yesterday morning, proceeded five miles west of the Gasconade. They returned last night, and report a troop of eighty Texan Rangers at Lebanon, destroying property generally, and robbing the emigrants coming this way. They took some of Col. Boyd's pickets prisoners. McCulloch and his army were expected in Lebanon on Sunday last, and the rebels say he will be prepared to give us battle. Another party left Camp Rambaur last night in the direction of Lebanon. The place is crowded with emigrants, and they are arriving daily in large bodies, some with wagons, and a great number on foot; some are entirely destitute, and such are furnished with rations from the commissary stores here, which are very large and daily increasing.

Capture of the Pirate Ship Beauregard.

NEW YORK, November 26.—The steamship George Peabody, arrived from Key West, reports that the pirate Beauregard has been captured by the gun boat G. W. Anderson, of Boston, with twenty-seven prisoners, and one long pivot gun on deck. The pirate was lying at Key West.

The Canada Signalled.

CAPE RACE, Nov. 26.—The steamer Canada, from Liverpool, for New York, passed here at half past eleven o'clock yesterday. The Associated Press yacht passed close to her, but did not obtain the can, which was doubtless thrown overboard, containing the Liverpool advices. She will be due at Halifax to-morrow.

Murdered by Indians.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 25.—William Smith, an assistant of S. A. Slade, road agent on the Overland Mail route, was murdered and robbed of his mules and clothing by the Snake Indians last week.
