Aggravated Assault and Battery.

A young man named John Peck, jr., ppeared at the Mayor's office on Thurse ay morning and made an information gainst two men for assault and battery the intent to kill. The information sets with that while atending at the corpor of orth that while standing at the corner of the and Webster streets, on Tuesday ight, he was accosted by two men, who areatened him with violence. He replied hat he was not a fighting man and did not yish any difficulty, but they insisted on ghting and one called for a knife, where your Pack ran and was nursued. One of ghting and one called for a knife, where-pon Peck ran an I was pursued. One of he men, Fred. Conoway, followed him nd threw a knife after him, which struck inder his shoulder blade, inflicting a se-ere wound. Peck believes that if he had ere wound. Feek peneves that it he had been caught by his pursuers they would have killed him. One way was arrested luring the morning and identified by Peck as the man who threw the knife.—

Mayor Wilson committed Conoway to answer at the next term of Court. THE PENNSYLVANIA THIRTEENTH .-We have received the fourth number of this little camp sheet, published by prin. Lers in Col. Rowley's regiment. We example the state of the state o
