JAMES P. BARR, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 13, 1862.

CITY MATTERS.

Of for the War. As there are quite a number of men in our city and neighborhood who are now out of employment, and have not yet joined the volunteers...

As the 10th regiment is now at Kittanning, a few miles north of this city, and is not yet full, it presents a most favorable opportunity to persons of this city.

As soon as the names are enrolled pay commences and men can now join in this city by applying to J. Adams, at the Washington Hotel, Canal Bridge, Penna. transport.

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE.—A BREXID BROTHER, Officer Hogue of the Independent Police, arrested on Wednesday morning a man calling himself George F. Davenport...

THE AUDITOR GENERAL AND THE BROOKERS.—Hon. Thomas J. Cochran, Auditor General of this State, recently issued a circular inviting the attention of the brokers and bankers to the provisions of an act...

DEATH OF LEWIS PHILLIPS.—J. W. Phillips, Esq., Lieutenant of Company I, Capt. McFarland, of Company K, regiment of Washington City on Wednesday morning, at the residence of his father, a young man of the personal appearance of excellent moral character, and highly esteemed by all his acquaintances.

DEATH OF A CHILD BY POISON.—On Wednesday evening a child (two years old) of Mr. Thompson, of the location of Bankers' building, died of a sudden, while in the shop, getting possession of a bottle of some poisonous mixture, used for cleaning jewelry, and swallowing the contents.

PRISONERS FROM WARREN COUNTY.—Gen. Brantingham, Warden of the Penitentiary, has received five prisoners from Warren county. Two are females, sixteen and 22 years of age, convicted of stealing $1,000 in gold.

DEATH BY DEATH.—About one o'clock on Sunday morning last, a small log house one mile east of Brownsville was discovered to be on fire. It was a one hundred years of age. She was in the house alone at the time, and was burned to death.

KILLED IN A CAR.—BANK—James Tate, a miner, residing in West Wheeling, was killed on Tuesday in a coal bank, by the caving in of the bank. He went to work as usual on Tuesday, and not having come home in the evening his family became alarmed, and search was instituted, where he was found buried under the bank.

THE 10th REGIMENT.—This fine body of men, in command of Col. T. F. Lohman, in process of organization at Kittanning, is not yet full. The companies for the regiment are expected in a day or two, and marching orders will soon be issued.

THE SEVENTH CAVALRY.—Yesterday was the day set apart for Col. Winkop's regiment to move from Camp Cameron, but the men are still without arms, and the lack of many of their equipments.

FIRE IN BROWNVILLE.—On Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the grocery store of Mr. T. B. Murphy, in Brownsville. It was discovered before it had reached the roof. Most of the stock in the store was destroyed, and the building completely damaged.

TAXING COAL.—We call attention to the card of the County Commissioners, in their last issue, whether held by the owner of the surface or leased to other parties.

A revival among the Winebretonians is going on at their annual (first) church in the city. The congregation here for some two months, Mrs. Beecher being the pastor.

The ball at the Theatre to-night embraces the "Octoroon" and "The House that Jack Built."

Special Meeting of Select Council—The Vacation of Liberty Street.

The special meeting of the Select Council, held last evening, in the City Hall, was devoted to the consideration of the petition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the vacation of Liberty Street, East of Washington, between the line of the Fifth and Ninth Streets.

The minutes of the meeting of November 25th were read and approved. The order was read and on a motion to amend, objection being made by Mr. Kincaid, placed on second reading.

Mr. Kincaid moved to postpone the consideration of the petition until the next meeting of the Council, and that the ordinance be published in the City papers for information.

Mr. Thompson opposed the postponement and after some discussion the motion was lost.

Mr. Ward presented a petition, with over thirteen hundred signatures, praying the Select Council to vacate Liberty Street between the line of the Fifth and Ninth Streets.

Remonstrances against the ordinance and the Bill of the Council were presented by Messrs. Ross, and Berger, and with the petition, placed on file.

The ordinance was, by request, read a second time, when Mr. McAuley, (Mr. Allen in the chair) offered a substitute for the second reading, providing that the ordinance be published in the City papers for information.

Mr. Thompson opposed the postponement and after some discussion the motion was lost.

The London Times on the Mason and Sidel Capture.

New York, Dec. 12.—The London Times more moderate in its comments on the capture of Mason and Sidel than the News. While deprecating the Federal Government on its own petition that a right to overboard, it admits that the existing war is a more rebellion, has admitted that England herself has established precedents which it is not to be denied that she would do now or hereafter.

no such thing. Though slavery caused it and though by it slavery may be overthrown or conquered, nevertheless the object of the war is to recover the rightful authority of the government and to put work out of the hands of the rebels.
