ntains the following official notice:-St. Paul's O chan Asylum being a diccean institution is but just that all the congregations in the diocese should contribute to its support. For many years past the principal burden of its support has follow on the faithful of the city and visibility. They have contributed to require cinity. They have contributed to regular yearly collections, to the yearly fair, and to the regular subscriptions of members of the Orphan Society. The faithful of other portions of the Diposes have been called on only occasionally, and, when thus appealed to have always contributed generously.—
It is now found necessary to take some means to increase charitable contributions for the support of the orphans, and, to this end the Bish p directs that a collection be taken up for his purpose on Christmas

GREAT BATTLE IMMINENT: BUSINESS IN NEW ORLEANS.

Freat Excitement in Nashville, TERRIBLE ACCOUNTS OF SICKNESS.

de., de., de.,

CINCINNATI, Dec. 13 .- The Gazette's Frankfort dispatch says that when the stage left Somersei, at 11 o'clock, Wednesday, there had been no fighting. The Postmaster wrote that they were expecting a light hourly. The enemy was close ing a ugut nourly. The enemy was close upon them with a force estimated at 15,000. Our force is about 5,000 effective men. Both soldiers and citizens complain of General Thomas for not having sent reinforceme: ts to Schoepff before this But, as it cannot interfere with the plans it is not improper to state that Buell's plan was that Thomas should get in Zollicoffer's

Letters received to night express appres nension about the result, should Zollicoffer force Schoepff to an engagement before Phomas arrives. An officer arrived from London this evening says there is rumor there that after some picket fighting Zollicoffer was re-treating again. If this is true Thomas won't be in time to intercept him. Troops continue to pour into Louis-ville. Four regiments passed through yes-

The Commercial's dispatch says the Paymaster from London reports Crit-tenden a: Cumberland Gap with fifteen sundred men and large forces in the letter to the representative from Wayne county says that Major Helorti, and three others who were captured with him, were killed by the rebels after their All the leading men have been driven away from Owensville, Bath county, and the town is in possession of four hundred abels, who were committing the greatest The Commercial says: We had yesterday a very interesting interview with two Union refugees from Louisiana, who succanded in making their way from New Orleans to Nashvilla, and through the robel Les to the Objoriver They confirm the report of the utter stagnation of business in New Orleans and the constant apprehension of an attack, and the constant operaty all the necessaries of All the men between the ages of eighteen and forty five are being impressed into the Memphis is strongly fortified on the riva

There were two gunboats at the landing and a regiment of infantry and a few com-panies of artillery comprised all the troops t that point. They arrived at Nashville on the 6th .-The city was in a high state of excitement. On that day and the tollowing an attempt was made to draft citizens into the army. The indignation of the people was intense. A mob broke cut in the 4th Ward For policemen who attempted to quell the riot were shot dead. The mob rushed to the capital to attack Governor Harris, who fled to Memphis. The papers next day announced that he had gone thither on WINES, BRANDIES, GINS AND CIGARS, Last Saturday, 2,500 men from Louisis ina passed through Nashville for Bowling Green, carrying black flags, embellished skulls and cross bones. They were mostly sixty days men armed ontirely with shot The people of Nashville are constantly expecting intelligence of a battle at Bowling Green. The rebel forces at that point ing Green. The rebel forces at that point are estimated by the rapers and well informed people at 25,0°0, and reinforcements constantly going forward.

The hospitals in Nashville are filled with the city. he sick. The number is estimated at 8, 000 to 10,000. The inmates complained of lack of attention, and were suffering for want of feed. The prevailing diseases were pneumonis and small pox. The treops from Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi suffered most. Most all the Texan Rangers are on the si k list, and in o deplorable condition. The deaths were fre quent, and supplied the draymen of the city with their principal business. On Saturday, a train of six cars, filled with sick, came in from Bowling Green. The Louisville Journal, of yesterday, that all the regiments in Indiana which have the minimum number of men have been ordered into Kentucky. This will throw from 9,000 to 10,000 more treeps into Kentucky.

Louisville, Dec. 18.—The Bowling LOUISVILLE, Dec. 18.—The Bowling of Green Courier, of the 7th, deprecates the discouraging effect of the burning of the Whippoorwill bridge, on the Memphis Branch Railread, by the federals. The correspondent says nothing indicates a forward movement of either army this winter: that Tennessee money was from 15 to 20 per cent discount twenty days ago, and is now 85 per cent. discount The Savannah Republican urges Davis o send Wm. C. River and John J. Ward to France and England. The Courier says that 15,000 Kentuc; ians are in the rebel army.

A letter from Somerset, of the 7th, confirms the capture, by the rebels, of Major Helveti and Capt. Prime J. R. Richardson, postmaster at Somerset, writes, on the 10th, that G.n. Zollicoffer has crossed the Cumberland 20 miles below Waitsboro, on a bridge of coal barges, with from 9.000 to 15,000 troops, and expect a fight to-morrow with the federal forces under General Schoepff, consisting of six regiments and two b tteries.
