OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

SAURDAY MORNING, DEC. 14. For Afternoon and Midnight Telegrams and Local News See First and Last Pages.

NATIONAL ARMYORY QUESTION.

We hope our citizens will turn out in force on Monday afternoon to the meeting to be held at the Board of Trade rooms, to receive the report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting...

A CORRESPONDENT AND THE GAZETTE.

The abolitionists in this locality are becoming so inflated with their own ideas that they can see nothing else...

Gen. McClellan should take possession of the White House, and send a message to Congress, and dictate laws at the head of the army...

The great difficulty with these enthusiasts is their failure to distinguish what the policy of the government really is...

The questions propounded by the Gazette, about McClellan taking possession of the White House, &c., are simply temper...

Now, we maintain that Gen. McClellan had as much right to threaten to resign as he had to accept it...

As the matter stands, we are not in a position to help to the right of the Government of the United States...

Arms for the South.

We are informed that Mr. Sumner left the House on Sunday morning (Nov. 13) with papers made out for General Sherman...

The London Times on the Seizure.

The following comments upon the Trent affair appear in the Times of the 21st.

"It requires a strong effort of self-restraint to discuss with coolness the intelligence we publish to-day. An English mail steamer, under the British flag, and carrying letters and passengers from a Spanish port to England, has been stopped on the high seas and overhauled...

"It is, then, true that every officer of the American navy who is sent to sea, is sent to sea with a commission to capture wherever he may find a vessel which can be taken as a prize...
