FIRES IN CRAWFORD COUNTY .- The extensive barrel factory of Jay Hotchkiss, of Townville, Crawford county, was burned on Wednerday night of last week, and all the tools and contents destroyed. This establishment gave employment to a large number of hands, and turned out between two and three hundr d barrels daily. have not learned the amount of less, hu understand that it was quite severe. Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machine. No sewing machine of any value can claim entire originality, as the proprietors of all which make the double stitch pay tribute or license to Elias Howe, the in ventor of the machinery which makes that stitch. Machines without this machinery are comparatively worthless and but few are sold. Of all the better machines the Wheeler & Wilson stands highest in the estimation of the public, as is made fully evident by the fact that the number sold during the year ending last month (up wards of 20,000) was greater than that of all others paying tribute to Mr. Howe during the sau e time. This is conclusive proof that the Wheeler & Wilson is the most popular machine sold. The agents for this city are Messrs. Wm Summer & Co, No. 27 Fifth street, who inform us that during the two years they have been here their sales have been very large.— The machine is peculiarly adapted for family use, and has this advantage; that the hammer turns the nem and fells at the same time, while it works noiselessly and makes a double lock stitch that cannot be pulled out. Every machine sold by Measrs Sumner & Co., is warranted and kept in good order for three years. We take pleasure in commending these gentlemen to all who intend purchasing sowing machines, which have now become almost a necessity in every family.

DEATH OF SOLDIERS -The following Pennsylvanians have died at the hospitals and in the camps in and around Washing ton since last report: J. D. Bidewell, 52d Pannsylvani .; Jacob Everic, 31st Penn Pennsylvania; Jacon Everie, and sexue on the single or maintain Reserve Corps; John Baker, 1st Penns to Franshor rubilenes the fact and table? sylvania Reserve Corps; Private Hough, drag fully red, and Soth Pennsylvania. FREAKS OF LIGHTNING IN CAMP .- A soldier in Col. Stambaugh's regiment, at a Camp Nevin, Ky, writes as follows: - wabout midnight a desfening explesion "About midnight a designing explosion took place in the next tent to my quarters, and the terrific yells from the sentine; brought me to my feet. THE SOUTHERN REBELLION. -This sons sation drama was produced for the second time last evening to a good audience, who seemed well pleased. The panorama intreduced into the piece is really beautiful and sione worth a visit to the Theatre.—
The piece is trilling and patriotic in the extreme and will touch the popular heart. It will be repeated to-night.

Our readers will remember that the balance of the beautiful plated ware will be closed out this afternoon, without any reserve whatever, at T. A. McClelland & Co.'s, 55 Fifth street. The ware is all warranted, and very suitable for presents, and every piece must be sold this day without
