UNION NOMINATIONS. FOR MAY R: HENRY A. WEAVER. FOR CONTROLLER: WILLIAM LITTLE. FOR TREASURER. JOHN C, DAVITE.

THE UNION TICKET. We place this ticket at the head of our columns this morning; we intend to support it on the day of election, and advise our readers to do likewise. It is composed of unexceptionable men, against whose ability and integrity not the slightest objection can be urged.

We perceive that the Gazette is at work to save its party by the election of the Republican nominees. Were we anxious for a mere party triumph, in our coming municipal contest, we could easily secure it by running a straight Democratic ticket. The sentiment of the Democracy of the city seemed to be against it, however, and we think that they have shown good sense as well as patriotism in so determining All we desire in these days of distraction, taxation, and poverty, is honest and faithful public servants; the days for mere partizans we think have departed.

JOB AND ROB. Under this heading the Tribune pub-
