FRIDAY MORNING.....JAN. CITY MATTERS.

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT .- We are inform-PICKPOCKETS ABOUT.—We are informed that four Eastern pickpockets arrived in this city about the close of last week and during their brief stay amongst us have been pursuing their avocation quite energetically. On Wednesday evening there was quite a rush at the Theatre, and two men at the door had their pocket books taken, one containing a small sum in sile ver, the other some $20 in gold and paper. taken, one containing a small sum in silver, the other some $20 in gold and paper. A man in the Theatre was arrested by officer Fox on suspicion, but on searching him in the salcon no money such as was missed by the two men was found and he consequently discharged. At Trimble's Varieties a gentleman was relieved of it $50 watch and another of his pocket-book. Doubtless others have suffered and the chevaliers seem to have made a good thing of it.
