CITY MATTERS.

INTERESTING OCCASION.—On New Year's eve, Mr. A. Hartuppe gave his hands (some forty in number) a complimentary supper in the South Room. All sat down to a sumptuous table and enjoyed themselves for a time in demolishing the good things set before them. After spending the evening in social enjoyment, with songs and speeches, in which the warmest wishes for the prosperity of Mr. Hartuppe were expressed, the assemblage dispersed, with a vote of thanks to their generous employer, and also to mine host of the South Room.

Death of John H. Phillips, Esq.

It is our painful duty to record the death, at 11 o'clock on New Year's night, of J. H. Phillips, Esq., of 17th and Locust streets, who has been suffering two or three weeks, having contracted the disease while in attendance on his son, Lieutenant J. H. Phillips, at Washington, D. C. He brought home the body of his son, but was unable to attend his funeral, and has since grown gradually worse, until the disease had carried off his son's prodigious fat to himself. Mr. Phillips was formerly of Robinson township, where he was for many years a Justice of the Peace. He was appointed County Jailor by Governor Patterson, and served in that capacity most faithfully, his kind and unselfish attention to the prisoners winning him universal commendation. He was a man of worth and integrity, and a devoted father and husband. His friends will be deeply grieved by his death. He was buried at 11 o'clock, from his late residence on Wylie street, to proceed to Mt. Union Cemetery.

FOUND DROWNED.—We noticed, some six weeks ago, a German butcher of Piquetteville, Crawford county, who shipped some hies to this city by boat and came himself by way of Kalamazoo, was missing on Thursday morning. It was found that the water was being let out of the canal, in Allegheny, the body of a man was discovered, and it was identified as that of the butcher, who was a son of the deceased. The body was found in the Allegheny river, and it was ascertained that he had fallen into the canal on his way to this city. There was no indication of violence or accidental drowning.

DEATH OF SOLDIER.—There have been thirty-one deaths of soldiers in the hospitals and camps at Washington since the last report, a few days ago, among them the following: Milo Miller, Dennis Peters and Robert W. Bell, of the 57th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, killed at Camp Curtin; and Corporal William Boyd, of the 62d (Colored) Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, killed at Camp Curtin. The other deaths were of soldiers in the hospitals and camps at Washington.

MAJORITY.—James W. Roberts will be the majority candidate for Mayor of Allegheny City, in the election to be held on the 11th inst.

THE CONCERT LAST EVENING.—It is long since the walls of the "Old Drury" contained as brilliant and fashionable an audience as last evening, on the occasion of the grand concert and opera by the company from the New York Academy of Music.

It was a most successful and enjoyable performance, and all the performers were well selected and all did their respective parts well. Luini is a powerful basso, superior to James or Fernes; Brignoli was charming as ever and Miss Hinkley, the prima donna, pleased all. She has a soft, melodious voice, of fine compass, but appears to much better advantage in opera than in concert. At least the audience seemed to think so, as although not called upon to repeat a lot of the concert pieces she was loudly cheered in Lucretia and Lucia. The concert gave general satisfaction and the only regret is that it cannot be repeated.

CITY MORALITY.—The deaths for the week ending Dec. 31st, according to the report of the Physician to the Board of Health, were 24, viz: 11 males, 13 females. Of the latter, two died of diphtheria, two of scarlat fever, two of small pox and one of cholera. The rest died of various diseases.

NEW YEAR'S DAY passed off quietly, all seeming to enjoy themselves in social communion during the day. The places of amusement were all well patronized, especially the Theatre, which was filled to its capacity in the evening. The Orphan's Fair was a success.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Wednesday afternoon to the card of Messrs. Backham & Long, in another column. They have opened a warehouse at No. 127 Liberty street, for the sale of agricultural and farming implements, in which business Mr. Backham has been engaged for some years. The firm are also agents for the Buckeye Mower and Reaper, Wood Mower and Iron Harrower and Backless & Ammon's Ironware. We commend the house to all wishing anything in their line.

BLACKWOOD.—The starting monthly for December is placed on our table by Henry Miner, Fifth street. The contents are varied and interesting. One is entitled "Some account of both sides of the American War," and has a lesson to be learned from the past. Another is entitled "The Rebels." Blackwood is gaining little popularity here by its course on American affairs.

THEATRES.—At the popular place of amusement, this evening, the bill is the fine English comedy of "London Assurance," with a strong cast, and the pantomime "D. Charlemagne." This should draw a full house.

BANQUET TO GOV. CURTIS.—Governor Curtis was handsomely entertained by Secretary Cameron at Washington City, on Monday evening. Among the guests present were the President, Secretaries Chase, Blair and Seward, Gen. McClellan, Adjutant General Thomas and several Senators. The Substantive Committee ask contributions for sick and convalescent soldiers at Washington and St. Louis. Any articles left at Albert Son & Co's, Weyman & Sons', Smithfield street, will be thankfully received.

DR. A. M. POLLOCK has been installed as Deputy District Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. for the 13th and 14th wards of this city.

CAPT. B. F. COCKER, of Montgomery County, has been chosen Adjutant of the 10th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, Col. J. H. Wilson, of Beaver county, now at Camp Curtin, near Harrisburg.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP, the celebrated vocalist, is to give a concert in this city shortly.

JAMES BREWSTER'S STEAM OYSTERS.—Steam oysters have become an institution among us, and the place to get them is at James Brewster's, corner Liberty and Wayne streets. He is a clever gentleman, and having the most approved apparatus, is prepared to furnish to families oysters done in his style by the bucket, peck or half peck, and those wishing them by the dozen can get them in two minutes' time.

MATURITY.—James W. Roberts will be the majority candidate for Mayor of Allegheny City, in the election to be held on the 11th inst.
