CITY MATTERS. RAILROAD DECISION .- In the opinio of the Surreme Court, in the case of Brown vs. Peterson and Corey, recently delivered it was held that under the lateral railroa act of 1832, and its supplement of 1858, after a favorable report by viewers, the determination of the necessity of the road is exclusively for the Court, and on-appeal from the report of viewers, the only question to be submitted to the jury is as to the amount of damage. CAPT. SAIL WOUNDED .- A dispatch eceived yesterday by Col. Leopold Sahl, nnounces that his son, Captain L Sahl, of the Moorhead Cavalry, had his leg bad-ly shattered yesterday, and that amputation vould be necessary. Place and circumstances were not given. The dispatch was dated Cumberland, Md.
