CITY MATTERS.

DEATH IN JAIL.—An Irishman named Michael McGraw, about forty years of age, who had been committed some time since by Mayor Wilson for drunkenness, died in his cell in the county jail about four o'clock on Sunday morning. Coroner McClung held an inquest, and the jury found that deceased came to his death from general debility caused by intemperance. A cell mate testified that McGraw was very ill during the night, and that "he died on his knees, praying for his soul." Deceased was the father of two or three children, who had been taken from him and placed in the care of others, his wife being dead He was a large, stout man, but had completely shattered his constitution by drunkenness and exposure, being a common vagrant and frequent inmate of the jail.

THE PENNSYLVANIA THIRTEENTH.—We have received No. 7 of this little sheet, dated at Camp Fenally, D. C, Jany. 4th We extract a few items:

The Printers of the Thirteenth regiment talk of celebrating the birthday of Franklin, the 17th inst., in true typographical style, should "circumstances over which they have no control" permit. Whether they will go it alone or unite with the numerous printers of this brigade, has not been yet determined. If they go at it, we shall have a bill of fare as long and varied as army rations will allow.——Our non-commissioned officers have been taking lessons in heavy artillery practice from Capt. Fullwood, at Fort Pennsylvania lately, but these exercises have been exchanged, since New Year's, for the ordinary routine of company and battalion drills, brigade drills being dispensed with, owing to General Peck being temporarily confined by indisposition ——Our regimental number continues to be the 18th, and will remain until positive orders are received changing it. We trust, therefore, that our friends will not suddenly alter our address to the 102d. No such regiment existing we fear their favors may miscarry.——Among the New Years gifts received in holiday week, in our camp, was a handsomely ornamented and delicious cake, the iced top bearing the inscription, "Col. Thomas A. Rowley, 18th Pennsylvania Regiment. A Happy New Year!" It came from a young (and handsome) lady in the Third ward—who deserves a good husband—after the war.——The irregularity of our mails is a source of constant complaint. Recently, a batch of letters are often four or five days [illegible] or two days.——[illegible] ournor[illegible]iment is about [illegible] and round about—of groups, [illegible] of any battle grounds our brigade may hereafter visit.——Lieut. Moreland has returned from a visit to Pittsburgh. Lieutenant Joseph Bishop has departed for Birmingham, Pa. Lieut. Rennison has resigned on account of ill health ——Major Wynkoop has presented to Captain Morris, the Adjutant General, a beautiful meerschaum pipe.——The detachment under command of Captain McFarland still continues at Great Falls, Md. It consists of Companies I and L.

MR. COLLINS'—This gentleman commenced his engagement last evening to a good audience and was received with loud applause, as he deserved. His "Widow Machree" brought down the house and was twice encored. He appears to-night as O'Callaghan, in "His Last Legs" and as "Teddy the Tiler." The farce of "A Year in the Army" is also included in the bill. Let him have a rousing house this evening, as he is a most finished actor in his line.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—On New Year's day the members of the Allegheny County Agricultural Society met at their rooms, and elected the following officers:

President—J. McK. Snodgrass. Vice President—Benj. Kelly. Corresponding Secretary—J. Murdoch, Jr. Recording Secretary—J. S. Negley. Treasurer—J. Reed. Managers—John McKelvy, Robt. McFarland, Saml. After the adjournment of the Society, the Board organized by electing W. S. Haven, Esq., as chairman, and S. Schoyer, Jr., Esq., as secretary. Adjourned to meet on the last Wednesday of January.

Logan; Vice President, Joseph Pennock; Secretry, Joseph Kirkpatrick; Treasurer, Joshua Hanna; Managers, John Sampson, L. S. Livingston, Jas. McCandless, Jas. Schoonmaker. G. L. B. Fetterman, B. L. Fainestock, Geo. Weyman, John Herron, John Phillips, C. Yeager, Wm. Dilworth, J. L. Graham.

The Board will meet on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock p. m., at their office on Fourth street, for organization.

ALL WELL.—A letter from Company D, (Pennock Guards, Capt. Enright,) 18th Pennsylvania regiment (now 102d) states that all the members are in good health, including Lieutenants Patchell and Henne, who are both now able to go on duty. There is but one man in the hospital and he is convalescing.

WAIVED A HEARING AND GAVE BAIL.—Mrs. Mary J. Kerr, the woman arrested for attempting to pass a counterfeit $10 bill on Simon Johnston, druggist, yesterday waived a hearing and gave bail in the sum of $500 for her appearance to answer, her brother, John McKee, becoming her surety. There were several present with a view to identifying her, if possible, and they were much disappointed when she did not appear. The Mayor, however, could not compel her attendance.

The First ward Republicans had previously nominated their ticket, and the Fourth did not hold a meeting as recommended.

SECESH PRISONERS.—Six prisoners, "bush whackers," from Cabell county, Va., were lodged in the Athaneum at Wheeling, on Friday One of them, bearing the nickname of "claw-hammer," is said to be a notorious guerilla, and his appearance in no wise belies his reputation.

THE Christian Instructor and Western United Presbyterian says: Rev. J. B Finley, who was for a time a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and afterwards of the Presbyterian Church (O S) has been suspended from the office of the holy minister by the Presbytery of Nassau, having been found guilty of disorderly conduct.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, January 6.—SENATE.—Mr. Nesmith, of Oregon, presented the credentials of Benjamin Stark, appointed Senator from Oregon to fill the vacancy, occasioned by the death of Senator Baker. Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, moved that the administration of the oath be suspended for the present, and that the credentials with certain papers be held in his hand be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. He had papers well attested by many of the most respected inhabitants of Portland, Oregon, stating that Mr. Stark was understood to be an open and avowed secessionist, defending the course of the South and had given utterance to sentiments at war with the government, such as approving the attack on Fort Sumter and declaring that in case of war he would sell his property and go South to fight for the rebels. He, Mr. Fessenden, had examined the papers with deliberation, and therefore made the motion.

Mr. Bright of Indiana, said there was no precedent for such a motion, he had never known a case where a Senator had been denied the oath; he thought the Senator had better be sworn and then let the Senate take cognizance of the papers. There had never been baser falsehoods uttered than those which had been sent to the Senate about himself. He had in his pocket a copy of the New York Herald, where it was stated that he, (Mr. Bright,) was a Brig. Gen. in the rebel army.

Mr. Fessenden said there was no precedent for the course he proposed, but the present state of the country was without a precedent and we had now to make precedents; he said these papers were well attested from the neighbors and townsmen of Mr Stark

Mr Bayard of Delaware, thought the case had better go over till to morrow.

After further debate the credentials and papers were laid on the table for the present

Mr. Wilson, of Mass., presented the petition of the citizens of Pennsylvania, asking that Gen. Fremont be appointed a Lieut. General.

Mr. Carlile, of Va., presented the petition of the citizens of Pennsylvania, stating that slavery had been the cause of the war, and asking that no further agitation of the subject be tolerated in Congress.

A communication from the Secretary of War, was received, transmitting the correspondence in the Trent affair. The papers were ordered to be printed and made the special order of Tuesday next.

Mr. Foster, of Conn., reported from the committee on the Judiciary, in relation to the contested seat from Kansas. He said that no new facts had been submitted to change the former report of the committee, and that Mr. Stanton was entitled to a seat.

Mr. Collamer, of Va., offered a resolution that the committee on Post offices, be instructed to inquire into the expediency of placing a tax on conveying intelligence by telegraph. Agreed to.

Mr. Davis, of Ky., introduced a joint resolution that the President procure an exchange of prisoners taken from the privateer Jeff. Davis, for prisoners taken from the army of the United States.

Adopted.

Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, offered a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to allow goods, coffee and tea warehoused before the passage of the recent act to be withdrawn with the duty of the former act paid, and that the duties collected on such goods under the last act be refunded.

Agreed to.

Mr. Powell, of Ky., introduced a bill to repeal all acts granting bounties to fishing vessels.

The bill to establish a National armory at Rock Island, Ills., was taken up and postponed till Monday.

The bill making appropriations for Pensions for 1863 was taken up and passed.

On motion of Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois, the bill in relation to Judicial Districts of the United States altering the boundaries of certain districts was taken up, and after discussion postponed until Monday.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to define and fix the pay and emoluments of certain officers of the army.

Referred.

The Senate went into executive session and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Crittenden of Ky. contended that the House has no power, under the Constitution, to inquire into any matter purely military. The army is under the control of the President, who is responsible for its operations. To interfere with this, therefore, would be an attempt to extend our civil jurisdiction. The effect would be to dissolve our entire army. He believed that the whole country has confidence in Gen McClellan. We had better weaken our army than weaken that confidence in the General-in-Chief. An army of hares led by a lion is more to be dreaded than an army of lions led by a hare. The British Parliament had exercised the right of inquiring into the conduct of the Crimean war, but the Secretary of War had only exercised a discretion allowed to him by the House in the original resolution, and it was now too late to complain of it.

Mr. Lovejoy, of Ill., entered his protest against the principles enunciated by the gentleman from Kentucky, having always believed that the military should be subordinate to the civil power. The regular military officers are more in the way of an advance than any other class. We are not true to the principles of justice and truth and those of human equality, namely, liberty throughout all lands to all the inhabitants thereof.

A discussion ensued between Messrs. Lovejoy and Wickliffe and others, on the question of abolition.

Mr. Dunn thanked God that Mr. Lovejoy was not, nor likely to be, a member of the Cabinet.

Mr. Lovejoy.—That is not so certain.—(Laughter)

Mr. Stevens, of Pa., protested against the doctrine enunciated by Mr. Crittenden as having no foundation in the Constitution. He said it appears that the border States would rather see the Constitution and the Union perish than that slavery should perish. We had just given 20,000 men to Kentucky to support slavery, should the destruction of the Union or slavery be presented.

Mr. Dunn, resuming, said he would make no sacrifice of the Constitution to preserve slavery, but he did not believe that this government could be perpetuated by declaring the emancipation of slavery as its object.

Mr. Blair, of Md., moved that the whole subject be laid on the table. Not agreed to: yeas, 57; nays, 77

Mr. Richardson offered an amendment to Mr. Conkling's resolution, that the Secretary of War also report to the House, if compatible with the public interests, who is responsible for the defeat at Wilson's Creek, near Springfield, and at Lexington Disagreed to; yeas, 49; nays, 81.

Mr. Conkling's resolution was then adopted. Yeas, 79; nays, 64,

Mr. Wickliffe offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of providing, by law, for making final the decision of the Board of Commissioners now engaged in the Western Military Department.

Mr. Stevens asked and obtained leave to report a joint resolution explanatory of the recent imposing of duties on tea, coffee and sugar. He said that this was necessary, owing to the construction given to the act by the Secretary of the Treasury. It relieves goods warehoused and in bond before the passage of the act from the additional tax.

The bill was passed and the House the adjourned

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan 6.—The painful rumors in regard to the arrest of a prominent military officer of the government, for treason, is without the shadow of foundation. In fact, some matters of importance in the shape of correspondence has been discovered, but in connection with parties entirely different from the officer named in the rumors now current. All the parties implicated are now under arrest.

This city is full of Southern sympathizers or spies in high social position. The time has arrived when they must be rigorously dealt with.

An official communication in response to a resolution of the House of representatives was to-day transmitted to that body by the Secretary of War, covering the reports from the Quartermaster's Department, from which it appears that George Randall, of Pennsylvania, has been awarded the contract for feeding 525 disabled horses during the winter, and Chas. Chouteau for 71 horses.

It appears that the contract system thus far has failed entirely. Advertisements for bids for for almost everything required have been made but not in a single instance have the lowest bidders come forward and closed contracts of horses placed on Chouteau's farm at 35 cents a head per diem.—Only about 35 of them become serviceable. The remainder are not considered worth the keeping.

Judge Hearne, one of the Counsel of Colonel Kerrigan, emphatically contradicts the report that evidence has been elicited on the trial ex-tsblishing, without doubt, the charge of his having given information to the enemy, and further that the evidence for the prosecution has not yet been closed. The paragraph transmitted yesterday was based on what was considered at the time reliable information.

Representative Ward to-day, gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to establish a Cotton Department in the Essay Office at New York. He also presented the memorial of the citizens of Greytown for the appointment of commissioners to enquire into the jurisdiction of the authorities Greytown over Punta Arenas, and to ascertain the value of the property destroyed by the bombardment of that town.

Private Michael Lenahan of C mpany A, Second United States Infantry, was executed to day, having been found guilty of killing Sergeant Brennan, by shooting him. The General in-chief in the order approving the finding of the court martial, says: The proof is clear that he did this in satisfaction of the grudge he bore to the deceased, not only for the blow he had given in the guard house a few months before, but for all scores which he mentioned in his statement to the court. It is very reprehensible for a commissioned or non commissioned officer to strike an officer, except when it is absolutely necessary to repress disorder It is never allowable as a punishment for an offence, but for a soldier, because of being struck to shoot his immediate superior is at war with every principle of military subordination.

It was an evidence that it was not customary for sentinels at Georgetown to have their arms loaded The prisoner must have loaded his musket for the purpose of carrying out his vindictive designs against the sergeant. The homicide, in this case, seems to lack some of the features which distinguish murder from simple manslaughter. For those reasons the sentence was approved and the Provost Marshal was charged with the execution of the order The gallows was erected in the northern suburbs and the convict was hung in the presence of detachments from five regiments of the regular infantry.

ARRIVAL OF THE BOHEMIAN.

HALIFAX, Jan 6.—The steamer Bohemian from Liverpool, with dates to the 26th ult., and advices by telegraph, via Londonderry, to the 27th, has arrived here.

Later from Hancock.

FREDERICK, January 6.—Advices show General Lander's arrival at Hancock, also that Jackson, with a large force, one twenty four and two twelve pounders appeared opposite Hancock and threatened to shell out our troops unless they evacuated. Lander gave them a fitting response. The commenced shelling, which continued up to the latest advices last night, doing little injury to the town and none to our troops. At an early hour this morning the Third brigade left here for Hancock, leaving the 46th Pennsylvania regiment at Williamsport. The rest of the division are under orders, their preparations are complete and they are awaiting marching orders.

There is nothing from Hancock this morning.

Gen. Stevens' brigade advanced on the mainland on the 1st inst., and took possession of the rebel batteries, after a short resistance, in which the troops were aided by the gunboats in shelling them. Gen. Stevens followed up his success to within six miles of the Charleston railroad. A flag of truce was received [illegible] for the rebels requesting permission to [illegible] their dead, and an hour was granted for the purpose, when they fell back to [illegible] fortifications, which are said to be [illegible] extensive, and defended by from [illegible],000 to 12,000 men under Gen. Pope. The [illegible] unknown. Our force was 4,500 men, [illegible] had only 8 wounded, including [illegible] Watson, of the 8th Michigan, mortally. Gen. Stevens now holds possession of the mainland and awaits reinforcements.

Confusion in Philadelphia Common Council.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—To day being the time for the organization of councils, a scene of confusion occurred from two sets of members being returned to the common council from several wards. Each party elected a president and clerks, and occupied seats, proceeding to swear in their respective members. Each party sent a committee to the mayor, who returned answer that common council would be recognized when properly organized, and not till then.

Inauguration of Gov Harvey.

MADISON, Wis., Jan 6.—The inauguration of the Governor and State officers took place to-day. Ex Gov. Randall, on retiring, thanked his friends and co-workers, and expressed regret at parting. He was followed by Gov. Harvey, in a few brief and appropriate words.

Ohio Legislature Organized.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—The Ohio Legislature organized to day. The Governor's message is congratulatory on the prospect of a favorable termination of the present war, and on the general prosperity of the State for the past year. He reiterates briefly the history of the State since 1802, when the Constitution was adopted, showing its immense increase in wealth and population. After devoting some space to affairs of local interest, he refers to the report of Secretary Chase, and dissents from his plan of a national currency as liable to many objections, and impracticable as a measure of relief to the government. He likewise objects to the income tax imposed by Congress as making an unwise discrimination between people who are all willing to support the government in proportion to their means, and discriminating between United States and State securities. Referring to the military affairs, the Governor states that upon the first call of the President 92 000 men volunteered; the number of men now in for three years service is 77,844, of which 46,985 are in active service outside of the State. This does not include citizens of Ohio who have entered military organizations in other States, because of want of authority to receive them in Ohio, the contingent number of which is estimated at 10,000 The total amount expended for war purposes to Jan. 1st, 1862, including unpaid liabilities, is $2,369 451. The whole amount refunded by the United States to Ohio is $1,077 000. The Governor thinks the ultimate effect of the war will be the extinction of slavery, but he deprecates immediate emancipation.

Another Destructive Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, January 6.—A destructive fire occurred this afternoon, burning the drug warehouse of G W. Lewis, No. 45 South Fourth street, above Chestnut, and the blank book warehouse of William Mann, No. 43.

Total loss was $75 000. The loss of G. W. Lewis is estimated at $25 000; insurance $15,000 in the Commercial Insurance Company of this city, the Northern Insurance Company of London, and Washington Insurance Company of Providence, R. I., each $5 000 William Mann's loss is nearly $40 000; insured for $20,000 in the Royal Insurance Company at Liverpool—Mann & Son, booksellers and stationers, lost $5 000 by water; they were fully insured in this city. T J. Delaforce, carpet dealer, $5 000 by water. Wordwell & Co., tobacconists, occupying No 41, $5 000 by water, insured here. The Keen estate are the owners of a portion of the property which was insured for $6 000 There were various other losses, of minor importance, by water. The entire interior of Lewis' warehouse was destroyed, and only the walls were left standing.

The cause of the fire was the accidental upsetting of a stove.

An Engagement.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 6.—The Commercial's Hagerstown Herald says that Hutchinson's raiders captured supplies of Western Virginia. Their cavalry were armed with Sharp's carbines and struck rod us two miles from Hedgesville. We drove them from point to point. Finally they beat a hasty retreat out of the town as we charged through it. Their supplies consisting of 350 bbls of flour, 300 salted beeves, 3000 bbls salt, large quantities of sugar, coffee, rice, bacon and army clothing, worth from $25 000 to $30 000 dollars, were entirely destroyed We captured a large number of Sharp's carbines, sabres and pistols. The stars and stripes are now floating over our court house. Our troops returned to Hutchinson in fine spirits

Compromised.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan 6.—The Common Council, to-night, organized upon a compromise basis proposed by the Select Council, to wit: Both sets of members from the 9th ward to remain out; the rest of the chamber then to acknowledge as chairman, Charles B Frego, late president, and then elect officers. The case of the 19th ward to be referred to an investigating committee The being done, of course, the Democrats got the organization

TO THE PUBLIC.

ESPECIALLY the ignorant and falsely flattering pretensions of all denominations treat secret and [illegible] disorders, nature's fearful scourge of sensual sin, and [illegible] sexes, ages or married: Because [illegible] ignorance publishes the fact of his doing so, the [illegible] and falsely modest are led astray, fully convinced, and [illegible] it a great and very immoral [illegible] for [illegible] and corruption [illegible] their wives, promising [illegible] cautions to keep [illegible] in ignorance that they are to be the same. Dr. LANSTRUP, (except publishing) lest a lucrative practice might be lost to them among stupid fools; modest and presumptuous ignorant born and raised in ignorance, sprung up as mushrooms and who compare society, intelligence, sense, &c., to doll rags and cents, unreasonably, wrongly or otherwise. It is to publicity, however that numerous patients [illegible] in health that their secret [illegible] and wards, unnecessary fears, groundless [illegible] [illegible] consequences, have been restored to health and vigor by Dr. LANSTRUP, he is the most noted and after married, strong [illegible] are best calculated to [illegible] society, notwithstanding [illegible] having the advantage of over thirty years experience and observation, consequently, he has superior skill in the treatment of special diseases, and who are daily consulted by the profession, as well recommended by respectable citizens, publishers, proprietors of hotels, &c. Spermatorhea, or so called nocturnal emissions. This dreadful malady can be completely cured by the very last discovery that has never yet failed. In female diseases he has had superior experience on account of his old age, seventy years, all irregularity is completely cured. As for consumption or pulmonary diseases my syrups, which are composed from Iceland moss and other ingredients by a skillful physician five years at the business, it has had more success than all the pretensions that have as yet been discovered, as the certificates will show. They are all genuine and can be found according to a pamphlet that each person will get at the counter, all free of charge. TO HORSE OWNERS.—DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivalled by any in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effects is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also speedily cure Spavin and Ringbone may easily be prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.
