IMPORTANT TO LADIES.

DR. JOHN HARVEY, having for upwards of twenty years devoted his professional time exclusively to the treatment of Female Difficulties, and having succeeded in thousands of cases in restoring the afflicted to sound health, has now entire confidence in offering publicly his Great American Remedy,

DR. HARVEY'S

CHRONO-THERMAL FEMALE PILLS

Which have never yet failed (when the directions have been strictly followed) in removing difficulties arising from

Obstruction, or Stoppage of Nature, or in restoring the system to perfect health, when suffering from Spinal Affections, Prolapsus Uteri, Whites, or other symptoms of the Uterine Diseases. Also, in all cases of Debility, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Palpitations, &c., &c.

While these are the forerunners of more serious diseases these Pills are perfectly harmless on the constitution, and may be taken by the most delicate female without causing distress; at the same time they Act Like a Charm by strengthening, invigorating, and restoring the system to a healthy condition, and by bringing on the monthly period with regularity, no matter from what cause the obstructions may arise. They should however not be taken during the first three or four months of pregnancy, though safe at any other time, as miscarriage would be the result.

Each box contains 60 Pills. Price One Dollar, and when desired will be sent by mail prepaid by any authorized Agent, on receipt of the money.

CITY MATTERS.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.—The new Allegheny Councils will be constituted as follows for the ensuing year:

SELECT COUNCIL.—First Ward—John Atwell, 1 year, Samuel Riddle, 2 years, George Lewis, 3 years. Second Ward—John Hopkins, 1 year, Robert Ashworth, 2 years, Joseph Kirkpatrick, 3 years—Third Ward—George Gerat, 1 year, Benj Patterson, 2 years, Wm. Walker, 3 years. Fourth Ward—John Wright, 1 year, Wm. S. Bissell, 2 years, James Marshall, 3 years.

COMMON COUNCIL—First Ward—A. D. Smith, Joseph Love, T. H Beatty, W. O Stockton. Second Ward—H. M. Dunlap, John K Brown, William Tate, Jr., John Brown, Jr. Third Ward—Charles P. Whiston, C. C. Smith, James McBriar, Gottlieb Faas. Fourth Ward—R. B Francis, John Titsell, Andrew Davidson, Sylvester Barker.

Messrs. Lewis, Walker and Marshall, of Select, Smith, Love, John K. Brown and, Whiston, of Common, were re-elected from last year.

BOROUGH ELECTIONS.—The election in Manchester on Tuesday, which was with out regard to party, resulted in the choice of the following officers: Burgess—W. S. Spratt; Council—D. E. Adams, William Gill, H. Hutchinson, Wm Kunkle, Geo Motheral; Justice of the Peace—B. A. Sampson; Constable—Isaac Stewart; School Directors—Henry McCune, Joseph Chadwick, John M Cornwell; Assessor—A. McGilvray; Auditor—Wm Crawford; Judge of Elections—William J. Caughey; Inspectors—Robert Bailey, Samuel McCune.

REGIMENTS IN CAMP CURTIN.—The following regiments are in Camp Curtin, a majority of them having recruiting officers in different sections of the State, gathering up men: The Fifty-fourth, Col. J M. Campbell; the Fifty-sixth, Colonel S. A. Meredith; Sixty-eighth, Colonel W H. Gray; One hundred and First, Colonel Joseph B Wilson; One-hundred and Fourteenth, Colonel S. Curtis, and the One-hundred and Eighth, Colonel Longenecker. These regiments contain about 4,000 men, and three of them are nearly ready to march. Within the next ten days three of them will be filled up, either by recruits or consolidation of companies, and moved off. The others, in all probability, will remain in Camp Curtin for the winter, excellent wooden barracks having been prepared for comfortably quartering about two thousand men on the grounds.

CONSOLIDATION OF REGIMENTS.—The regiment of Colonel McAllen, which has been in process of formation at Camp Slifer, Chambersburg, was brought to Harrisburg last week, and will be consolidated with that of Colonel Longenecker this week. Both are skeleton regiments, having probably five hundred men in each. The consolidation will make a full regiment, and will be under the command of Colonel Longenecker, Col. McAllen acting as Lieutenant Colonel. The regiment will continue to be known as the One-Hundred-and-Eighth, and will be among the best in the field. It is likely that it will be armed and equipped in a few days, and more in the direction of Hancock.

ROMNEY EVACUATED.—The Wheeling papers confirm the evacuation of Romney by our troops, who first destroyed such tents and provisions as they could not carry away. Our forces are now at Patterson's Creek, seven miles East of Cumb rland and fifteen from Romney, if they have not yet moved into Maryland, as was expected. There were eleven thousand men at Patterson's Creek and three thousand at Cumberland, and thirty or forty pieces of cannon at both points. The movement was in accordance with an order issued from Washington some time since.

THE troubles at Camp Orr, Kittanning, are not yet settled. Colonel Lehman is accused, how justly we cannot say, with unduly favoring his Pittsburgh friends and the local papers are complaining bitterly. We think Col. L. will be found "right on the record."

NEW telegraph poles are being put up on Fifth street, preparatory to the removal of the office of the company to the second story of Reed's building, near Smithfield street. The route of the line will be removed from Wood to Smithfield street.

COL. R. Riddle Roberts is, we understand, to be appointed Provost Marshal of Washington City. He is a good lawyer and brave soldier and will fill the position most ably.

ON A VISIT HOME.—We see Col. O. F. Jackson, of the Ninth regiment Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, in this city. He arrived on Tuesday night and will remain but a short time.

HOME.—Capt. Robert Galway, of the Ninth regiment, wounded in the battle at Drainsville, arrived at home last Saturday night, on a thirty days furlough. He is still unable to move about without crutches, but is rapidly recovering.

1ST EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

By Yesterday's Telegram.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, January 14.—The Herald's dispatch says: Notwithstanding the absence of any cause for serious apprehensions of a foreign war, it is the desire of the Government and of the Commanding General that the militia of the loyal States shall be fully and efficiently organized; and in this connection General McClellan strongly urges the organization and practical preparation of artillery corps in all the seaport and lake towns, with a view to have in readiness for any emergency an effective body of well drilled artillerists, for the defence of our seaports and coasts. It is designed that these corps shall be provided by the Government with guns and equipments, and to be paid by the United States whenever called into active service.

Among the rumors in circulation, it has been whispered that the Secretary of the Treasury intends to withdraw to resume a seat in the U. S. Senate. This is all conjecture.

The rebel batteries on the lower Potomac continue to exhaust large quantities of powder without effecting anything. The Reliable was fired at thirty-eight times on Monday night while running down the river from Cock Pit Point and the batteries lower down, but she was not touched. The batteries at Shipping Point and Cock Pit Point kept up a constant fire of shells towards the Maryland shore this afternoon, which all burst high in the air and did no damage to any one.

Colonel James Kearney, Topographical Engineer, U. S A., recently placed on the retired list died on Friday last, aged seventy-eight years.

The Committee appointed to enquire into the matter of fortifying the western lakes and rivers have got to work at last. So far they have decided on recommending a fortification at the Straits of Mackinaw, leaving it to a commissioner to select the precise locality.

The United States Treasury's last weekly statement shows that the total amount on deposit was $3,700,000, on which drafts had been drawn to the amount of $600,000. The bullion fund is $1,192,000. The available balance in the States under insurrectionary control is stated at $450,000.

Arrival of the Arabia.

ST. JOHN'S January 15.—The Arabia, from Liverpool on the 4th inst., passed Cape Race last night, and a summary of her news was obtained. She has two batteries of artillery on board for Halifax.

The steamer Anglo Saxon, from Portland, and the Glasgow, from New York, arrived out on the 30th.

The confidence in peace gained strength daily.

Consols had advanced to the quotations current.

Before the Trent affair there was a strong conviction that the Europa, due on the departure of the Arabia, would bring a solution of the Mason and Slidell affair.

A suspicious steamer was cruising in the English Channel. It is believed to be the privateer Sumter, but it is more likely the U S gunboat Tuscarora.

The sales of cotton for the last four days was 80 000 bales. A considerable advance took place during the week. Official quotations for middling Orleans 12½@12¾, while private authorities quote sales at 13 during the week. On Friday 25,000 bales were sold, the market closing at a further advance of ⅛d per pound. Breadstuffs, on Friday, were dull, and all descriptions slightly lower.

Latest from Cairo.

CAIRO, January 15.—The gunboats St. Louis, Tyler and Lexington made a reconnoisance down the river to-day. They approached within a mile and a half of Columbus. They fired several shells into the Rebel camp. The Rebels returned the fire from three guns without doing any damage. The effect of our shells is not known. No obstructions were found in the river, nor any masked batteries discovered on the shore, as heretofore reported.

General McClernand moved in the direction of Blankville, Ky., to day. General Paine's force moved forward this morning from Bird's Point. The Second regiment of the Douglas Brigade will arrive to-night. The Seventh Iowa regiment, Eeighth Wisconsin and Fifth Illinois are expected to-morrow.

Breckinridge at Bowling Green.

LOUISVILLE, January 15, 1862.—A thoroughly reliable gentleman, just arrived, reports having seen John C. Breckinridge at Bowling Green on Friday last.

SELECT TALE.

HOW THE DUEL BEGAN, AND HOW IT ENDED.

The termination of the quarrel produced an immense effect upon our young minds. The want of courage is excused by young people less than the lack of any other of those qualities which excite their admiration; for courage they consider the most worthy of human virtues, and even a palliation for all possible failings. However, by degrees, the whole affair was allowed to pass by, and Silvio once more acquired his former ascendency.

For my own part, I could no longer approach him with the same feelings of confidence and pleasure with which I had hitherto done. Naturally of a romantic disposition, I, at first, felt an irresistible inclination towards this man, whose life was a riddle and whom I believed to be the hero of some secret and tragical tale. He liked me, at least I thought so, for I alone was free from the attacks of his never-failing sarcasm, and he conversed with me on various subjects with great freedom and extraordinary affability. But after that unfortunate evening, the idea that his honor had been compromised, and that he had taken no steps to retrieve it, I could not shake off, and it prevented me from behaving to him as I had formerly done. Silvio was too keen and experienced not to observe the change in my behavior, and also to guess the cause of it; and it evidently vexed and pained him.

The inhabitants of the capital and of other great cities have no idea of the many trifling circumstances which produce an incredible effect on the minds of those far removed from the more civilized world, as, for instance, the anxiety and excitement attendant on post-days. On Tuesdays and Fridays our office was filled with officers, some expecting letters, some money, others newspapers. The fortunate recipient of a packet of the last generally opened it on the spot, and communicated the principal news to an eager audience. The office at such time presented a picture of the most enlivening and exciting character. Silvio was generally found among us, for he received his letters through our regiment. One day he received a packet, with the greatest impatience he tore it open; his eyes beamed with delight as he began to run over its contents. All the officers being engaged in devouring the contents of their respective letters, did not observe the influence which Silvio's correspondence produced on him. It was not long before he drew our attention by suddenly exclaiming: "Sirs, circumstances have rendered my speedy departure necessary. I set out to-night, consequently, I hope you will not refuse to dine with me for the last time. I shall expect you without fail," said he turning to me. With these words he hastily retired and we, having all agreed to meet at his house, returned to our several duties.

I arrived at Silvio's at the appointed hour, and found almost the whole regiment assembled. He had already packed up all his valuables; there remained scarcely anything but the bare perforated walls. We sat down to the table. The host was in extraordinary spirits, and his good humor soon extended itself to all his guests. The corks were flying continually, and the glasses were hissing and frothing incessantly. We drank to his success times out of number, and showered over him our good wishes.

It was late in the evening when we rose from the table. When Silvio had taken leave of all, and we were preparing to depart, he took me by the hand and led me aside, and said quietly: "I wish to speak to you."

The guests left, and we remained alone. We sat opposite each other, and for a long time smoked our pipes in silence. Silvio was much embarrassed; already all traces of his convulsive merriment had disappeared. A deadly paleness, glistening eyes, and the thick clouds of smoke issuing from his mouth, gave him the appearance of a perfect fiend. At last Silvio interrupted the silence. "Perhaps," he said, "we shall never see each other again. Before we seperated I wished to unburden myself on a subject of which the particulars are well known to you. You have no doubt observed that I care very little for the opinion of others; but you I love and respect, and it would be very painful to me to leave on your mind any wrong impressions as to my conduct on the occasion, to the particulars of which I have just referred."

He stopped, and began to fill his pipe, which had gone out. Meanwhile, I sat pefectly silent, with my eyes cast on the ground.

"It seemed strange," he continued, "that I did not demand satisfaction from that drunken, insolent, Bodoff. You agree that, having by right the choice of weapons, his life was in my hands, while I was comparatively free from danger. I could ascribe my moderation to generosity, but I do not wish to deceive you. If I could have punished him without exposing myself to the slighest injury, I would not, on any consideration, have allowed the matter to pass by so easily."

I looked at Silvio with astonishment. Such a confession utterly confounded me. He continued: "I really mean what I have said. Indeed, I should not be justified in exposing my life to any danger, for six years ago I received a slight, and my enemy is still alive."

My curiosity was now excited to the utmost. "Then you did not fight with him?" inquired I. "Circumstances

"I did fight with him; and here is something which bear witness of the affair," he answered.

Silvio rose, opened a small box, and took from it a red cap. It was ornamented with a tassel made of gold fringe, and trimmed with galloon. He put it on, and I observed that if had been shot through at about an inch and a half from the forehead.

"You know," he said, "that I served the —— Hussars; you know also my character. In whatever society I have ever been thrown, I have always been the ruling genius. From my youth up, it has been my prevailing passion to be pre-eminent. In my younger days, extravagance of conduct was in vogue; irregularity and wildness of behavior was the order of the day; and in this I was second to none in the army. We boasted of drunkenness. I drank deeper than Bacchus himself. Duels were constantly taking place in our regiment, and on every occasion I acted either as second or principal. My companions idolized me, and although my proceedings were not openly countenanced by the commanders, I was looked on as a necessary evil.

THE FOLLOWING ARE VOLUNTARY statements from persons of respectability and truth, in this vicinity, who have been greatly benefited by his remedies; some of whom would evidently have been in their graves ere now, if their cases had not been arrested by Dr. Schenck's medicines:

Case of Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia of Ten Years Standing.

I have been suffering for ten years past from Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. I heard of Dr. Schenck's coming out to Martin Koch's, and I thought I would go and see him. At my disease had increased in violence within the past two years, and I had been under treatment of several doctors, from whom I received no benefit. In the early part of June of this year, I went to see Dr. Schenck, and was examined by him with his "RESPIHOMETER." I have been taking his "Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills since then, and I must say that I am greatly benefited by their use; indeed, I might almost say that I am well.

ANNA M. SMITH.

I have been much benefited by the use of Dr. Schenck's medicines.

RUFUS PARKER.

Oct. 31, 1861. Poland, Ohio.

Case of Mrs. McConnell.

I had been affected with Disease of the Lungs for four or five years, when I heard of Dr. Schenck coming to Martin Koch's. Previous to this time I had given up all hope of ever getting well, but Mr. Koch, whom I knew to have been cured by Dr. Schenck, urged my husband until he prevailed upon me to go and see the Doctor, who found both my lungs affected, the bronchial tubes were both diseased, when I breathed they would rattle so that it could be heard distinctly. I have now taken his medicines for some time, and find myself wonderfully improved, although not entirely recovered. I now find myself able to attend to most of my household duties, and have no doubt of my ultimate recovery. From the benefit I have received from Dr. Schenck's medicines, I would advise all persons similarly affected to apply to him when he makes his next visit.

Certificate of Jane Grist.

I have been troubled for about two years with a pain in my breast. Late in the Spring of this year I heard of Dr. Schenck coming out to Martin Koch's, and I determined to call and see him, and get examined with his Respirometer. I did so, and also took all three of his medicines, according to directions, and I have been greatly benefited. I hope, from the benefit already experienced, that it will not be long until I am entirely well.

JANE GRIST.

Poland Township, Mahoning Co., Ohio.
Oct. 31, 1861.

Cure of Mrs. Warner.

For about five years I had been affected with pain in the right side of my breast, and in hopes of getting relief I had taken many different kinds of medicines, but found no benefit from them whatever. I then heard of Dr. Schenck, and the great cures he was performing with his treatment, and concluded to send to the Agent in Pittsburgh, Dr Keyser for some of his medicines. Previous to taking it, I was so prostrated as to be unable to undress myself, or even to lay in bed; I was obliged to sit up in a chair in order to obtain any rest at all. After having taken Dr. Schenck's medicines, I heard that the Doctor was coming to Martin Koch's, and I determined to see him. I was already so much improved by the use of his medicine, as to be able to go over to Mr Koch's, which is a distance of a mile from my house. The color pronounced my disease to be Bronchial Consumption and Liver Complaint, with an adhesion of the Pleura to the ribs. I would moreover add, that I coughed almost continually, and spit up large quantities of matter daily. I took the Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, according to the Doctor's directions, and am happy to say that I am nearly well.
