

PITTSBURGH POST

JAMES P. BARR, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 17, 1902. CITY MATTERS.

Arrest of a Pickpocket.

Officers Moon and Gumbert yesterday succeeded in arresting Washington Freese, who has been frequently under arrest in the Penitentiary on terms. He has been in the city several weeks and is charged with robbing a railroad conductor at New Year's night. The officers had been on his track some time, and on Wednesday officer Gumbert arrested him, but was unable to convey him to the station, having only partially covered from a recent attack of illness and was obliged to let him run on his making his second time. At an early hour Wednesday evening, when Moon and Gumbert visited the house of Freese, on Grant street, and being refused admittance, they burst open a door and, finding him in his room, with his hands secured, he was taken to the station and yesterday morning the mayor committed him to the Penitentiary on a term of three months, with a fine of $100.

The mail train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, due at one o'clock yesterday, was delayed until dark by the running of the track of a freight train, east of the mountains, obstructing the road.

ALLEGANY, INDEPENDENT.

The board of directors of the Allegany Independent has just passed a resolution that during the past year 150 new buildings have been erected in this city, an estimated population of 127,450. Of these, 29 are in the First ward, 48 in the Second, 41 in the Third, and 26 in the Fourth. Our sister city is improving quite rapidly as Pittsburgh.

MAY NOT RESCUE.—Andrew Robinson, clerk of the Commodore Park, who was injured in an affray on the wharf with parties belonging to the Emma Graham, was in a dangerous condition yesterday. His recovery was considered doubtful. Samuel Murdock, mate of the Emma Graham, one of his assailants, has been committed to await the result of Botolph's injuries and a warrant was yesterday issued for another.

MORTUARY.—The deaths for the week ending January 12th, were 16, viz: 6 males, 10 females, 3 adults, 3 children; all white. Four adults died of consumption.

THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY.—The February number of this new magazine is laid out by Henry Miner, Fifth street. It is very readable and will, despite its abolitionist proclivities, be a valuable addition to our literature.
