PITTSBURGH FOST JAMES P. BARR, BULTORANDPROPRIETOR

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY SATURDAY MORNING::::::JAN. 18. CITY MATTERS.

ORGANIZATION OF ALLEGHENT COUNS Cha.—The members of the Allegheny Councils met in joint convention yester-day and organized with Jas. Atwell, Esq, as President and Samuel Riddle as Secretary. The returns of the recent election were approved and Messrs, Drum and Mayor and Director of the Poor elect, having been brought in by a committee appointed for the purpose, were inaugurated, Alderman Miller administering oath in the usual manner. Mayo Dram made a few well timed remarks, pledging himself to renewed enery pective chambers. The select Branch orpective chamoers. The select Dranch or-ganized by the reselection of Jas. Mar-shail, Esq., as President, and D. Macfera-ron, Clerk. In the Common Council Mr. A. D. Smith was elected President, Mr. McGonnigle, Clerk and A. Husselbaugh, the old incumbent, Messenger. The body ther adjourned.

Passed Through. — Maj. W. A. Stokes, of the Eighteenth United States Inlastry, passed through th's city yesterday. Those of his triends who had the pleasure of seeing him were delighted to find him robust, strong, and with all the fire and energy which distinguished him in civil life. He was pressed to remain a day or two, but declined, on the ground that "his honor and his hopes were in the camp, to which he longed to return as rapidly as the dua which he was ordered would per The battalion commanded by Maj. s the only one in the regular army raised in Pennsylvania. To it our people look with confidence; for they have long appreciated the high qualities of her distinguished son who has raised it, and will before long lead it into action.

DUQUESNE FIRE COMPANY, -The members of this company, now owning one of the best steamers in the department, held an election for officers on Thursday evening, resulting as follows: President, Chas. Kneeland; Vice President, J. McMurtry; Rhesiand; Vice Fresident, J. anc Murtry; Secretary, Henry Tatnall; Auditors, J. McMurtry, Henry Freyvogle; Delegates to Firemen's Association, Jas. S. Lyugh-lin, three years, J. Vick, two years, James Newhouse, one year; Captain, Jas. Ragineer, John Armitage; First Hose Director, George Whitfield; Second Rose Director, Patrick Farrell; Third Hose Director, Wm. Hopkins; Fourth, Jas. Miller Axemen, Saml. Shirley and Chas. Lowing Trustees, John Hamill, Jas. Miller and G H. Evans; Hose Engineers, 1st, Thomas Jones; 2d, Jno. McElroy; 8d, Jno. Weims er; 4th, John Hamill; 5 h, Jons. Bluck; 5th, Henry Tatnall.

MADAME ANNE BISHOP'S CONCERT .-This long looked for event takes place this evening at Concert Hall, and from the seats already sold we expect to see a large and fashionable audience in attendance. A programme is presented which cannot fail to please, embraoing sixteen pieces, ballads, songs, operatio gems, duett and in-strumental pieces. Mad. Bishop is a great favorite here and the papers of the cities in which she has recently been say she has lost none of her youthful vigor and sweetness. Mr. Seguin is also eminent as abartione and the duett "Quanto Amora," between him and Medame Bishop, is much extelled. Gustave de Spiess, the pianist, was a pupil of Lizzt, and is spoken of as a fine player. The programme emtraces the rew war song, by Stephen C. Massett, of "Our Good Ship Sails to night," and "The Flag of our Union," which Madame Bishop sings most effectively. There are yet some good seats remaining and those who desire them should call at Mellor's music store in season, as the sale closes a five o'clock this afternoon.

MISS ANNETTE INCE. -This young lady will be remembered with pleasure by many Theatre-goers She adds to a fine person much natural talent and a finished style of scing. After an absence of several week she is about to return to Pitteburgh and will commence at the Theatre on Monday week. She is now playing at Indianapolis, and the Journal of that city says, concerning her; "Miss Ince comes before us a finished actress—nothing overdone—noth. ing in bad taste—everything in harmony. Her Camille is such as Dumas conceived when he penned it. Her articulation is excellent, her voice clear and resonant, and her every gesture in perfect keeping with the sense and spirit of the piece. She can depict, in the most touching and pathetic manner, all that is tender and thrilling in the human heart. Her acting is subdued, repressed and regulated by good taste: it forms a perfect whole, not marred by insipidity in part, and vehement, impetuous mation in the other.'
