CITY MATTERS.
HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—We noticed last week that a horse had been stolen from B. Smith, near Canton, Ohio. On Tuesday last a man calling himself S. Taylor was arrested at Centerville, Butler county, with a horse in his possession answering the description of that stolen from B. Smith, who served at Centerville on Sunday and identified the horse. On Monday morning Zimmerman broke jail and after a long search was found under a tan-house and recommitted to prison to await a removal to the Governor's yard, for removal to that State. A reward of $50 had been offered for the recovery of the horse and arrest of the thief.

The Burnside Expedition—
Reports from the south—
Exciting News also from Savannah.

FORNERS MONROE, January 23.—via Baltimore.—There has been no arrival here from the Burnside Expedition. The Norfolk Day Book, of Wednesday, publishes a dispatch dated Goldsboro, January 21, at 4 o'clock, stating that one hundred vessels belonging to the Burnside Expedition were inside of Pamlico Sound, and that the vessels were being loaded with provisions. No attack had been made, but the vessels and children were leaving Newbern, N. C., where a fight was expected.
