By Yesterday's Telegram. Rebals Deploring the Ken-

siding at No. 282 Pennsylvania Avenue, has been in the habit of selling chances at tucky Fight--They Confess a Terrible Defeat. BALTIMORE, January 27.—The Richmond Dispatch of Friday shows that the rebels are much perplexed at their defeatin Kentucky. The Dispatch says: packages of consequences, finger rings, &c., in Kentucky. The Dispatch says:
would be distributed. 'The "plan of operations' was "justice to all patrons," but those who got the rare prizes named were on Wednesday night from Northern "Tew and far between;" the most ordinary sources, is more than confirmed by intellight. studenty packets with begus jewelry gift, gence received here at the War Depart-being the rale. Two ladies of Pennsyl- ment. It appears that our defeat was more yand a seque having purchased tickets, got a package of a atlohory each, one o intaining a likeness of Col. Black, the other a worthless locket. The case was laid before decisive than even Northern accounts had led us to believe. The editor says this disaster in Eastern Kentucky, and the appre hention it has excited for the safety of our Mayor Wilson, who sent out some officers, connection with the Southwest, through yesterday morning and arrested Collier. Virginia and Tennessee, and East Tonness yesterday morning and arrested Collier, who had just arranged for enother "draw" to morrow. They saw no silk dresses, gold watches, or other articles of walds in ee, and via the railroad, and possible interruption of our intercourse with the South, via the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, by the Burnside expedition, directs attention to the vital importance of he house, in fact scarcely anything but completing the connection between Rich plead poverty and promised to quit the mond and Danville, and the North Carolina Railroad. Augusta, Ga, January 23 .- A private letter received from Charleston this norm ng says that five stone vessels were sun the channal vesterday. The Savannan Republican of this morning says that the statement that the F. d eral vessels had gone up Broad river is in

The Dispatch contains a telegrom from Norfolk, saying that the Baltimore South, received there, contains a statement that report had reached Baltimore of the bas of five of Burnside's fleet in Pamlice Sound, and that a large steamer, probably the Louisiana, had been burnt, etc. Thus t would seem that this report had no other oundation than this Secesh sheet the Balimore South. Force of the Rebeis in South-west Missouri and Arkansas Rolla, Mo., January 26 -A promis nent citizen of south west Missouri has just arrived from Mount Vernon, Law rence county. He says General Rains, with about four hundred men, stayed all night at Mount Vernon on Tuesday night he 14th inst., on his way to Granby, where his soldiers said they were going to work in the tead mines. Threats were made to arrest all the men who had been connected with the home guard companies and put them at work in the miner. In consequence of this, a large number of Union itizens were leaving the country. On the same night that Rains staid at dount Vernon, raport exid that one hun dred and seventy or two hundred rebels were encamped on the head of Spring river, en route for Caseyville. In regard to the number of troops in Northern Arkan sas, he says that he has it from good au thority that there are only about fine hundred or six hundred troops at Cross Holelows and Cane Hill, Benton county, but a body of from three thousand to five thousand were at Tillsworth Dend, about fifty miles below Van Bergon, on the Arkan

"We've brothers in Canada, too—

NEW YORK, January 27.—The Washington correspondence of the New York apers says:
A rebel deserter, who came into our lines last evening, contradicts the report that the robels have fallen back from Manassas. He says about ten regiments have gone South, but that the main body of the rebel army has not changed its position. They have nearly abandoned the dea that Gen. McClellan intends to attack The rebel line of defence extends up wards of sixty miles. They expect the most sanguinary battle to take place at Centreville, for they have that place, for miles around, almost impregnably fortifi-ed. He says it was reported for several days that McCleilan was dead, and there was great rejoicing, for the rebel Generals have a periect dread of meeting him is The House Committee, who have the abject of a national foundry before them, have agreed to report in favor of the im establishment of one. Two Irishmen out of emoloy,

And out at the chows as aistly,
Adrif in a grocery store,
Were rmoking and taking it latily,
The one was a broth of a boy,
Whose check bones turned out and turned in
His name was Paddy O'Toole,
The other was Mister McFinnigan.

"I think of enlistin'," says Pst,
"Because, do ye see what o'clock it is;
There's nothin' a doin' at alf
But drinkin' at thra. O'Dougherty's;
It's not until after the war
That bus ness times wilt begin again.
And fightin's the duty of all"."
"You're right, sir," says Mister MoFinnigan

"Bad luck to the rebels, I say,
For Kickin' up all this boobers;
They call themsolves gintemen, too,
White praction, murder and appliers.
Now if its gintale for to steal,
And take all your creditors in again,
I'm glad I'm no pintieman born"
"You're right, sir," says Mister McFinnigan

"The spaineens make bold to remark
Their chivalry couldn't be ruled by us;
And by the same token I think
They're ne'er too smart to be fooled by us.
Now if it's the negars they mane
Be chivalry, then it's alla again
To fight for a cause that is black".
"You're right, sir," says Mister McFinnigas

"A nagur's a man, ye may say,
And aquil to all other Southerners;
But chivalry's made him a brute,
And so he's a monkey to Northerners;
Sure look at the poor cratur's heel,
And look at his singular shin again;
It's not for such gin lemen fight"—
"You're right, etr," says Mister McFinnigs

"The nagur Bistrs wanted a row,
And now, he me sow! we've got in it;
They've chosen a bed that is hard,
However they strive for to cotton it.
I'm thinkin' when winter comes on
They'll all be inclined to come in again;
But then we must bate them at first."—
"You're right, sir," says Mister McFinnigan.

"On hone! but it's hard that a swate Good lookin' young chap like myself indade, Should see his ten shillin's a day Because of the trouble the South has made; But that's just the raison, ye see, Why I should help Union to win again; It's that will bring wages once more." You're right, +lr, says Mister McFinnigan.

"Joost mind what ould England's about,
A sendin' her troops into Canada,
And all her ould ships on the coast
Are ripe for some treachery any day.
Now it she would mix in the war—
Be jabers! it makes me head spin again!—
Ould lathard would may such a chance!"—
"You're right, sir!" says Mister McFinnigan.

"You talk about Iri-hmen now,
Enlistin' by thousands from toyalty;
But wa't till the Fheenix Brigade
Is called to put down British Hoyalty;
It's then with the Stars and the Stripes
All Irishmen here would go in egain,
To surks for the Shamrock and Earp!"—
"You're right' sir!" says Mister Mck'innigan.

"Och mur her! me blood's in a blase
To think of bould Corcoran leading us
Right into the camp of the bactes
Whose I cohes so long have been bleedin
The Stars and the Stripes here at home
To Onada's wall's we would pur again,
And wouldn't we raise them in Gork 19—
"You're right, sir!" says Mr. McFinnigan. "And down at the South, do ye mind, There's plinty of Irishmen mustering,
Deluded to nght for the wrong
By rebei mis-statements and bitatering;
But one let ould England, their for nd sure they'd desert to a man!"—

"You're right, sir!" says Mr. McFinnigan "There's niver an Irishman born," From Maine to the end of Secses

From Maine to the end of Secsesiondom,
But longs for a time and a chance
To fight for this country in Hessian-dom;
And so, if ould England should try
With treacherous friendship to sin again,
They'il all be on one side at once "—
"You're right, sir!" says Mister McFinnigan.

"Hurrah" for the Union me boys,
And divil take all who would bother it
Secession's a rager so black
The divil humself ought to father it;
Eurrah! for the bou'd Sixty-ninth,
That's prisintly bound to go in agam;
It's Corcoran's re-cue they're at"—
"You're right, sir!" says Mister McFinnigan.

^aPm off right away to enlist, And sure won't the bounty be handy-0! To kepe me respectably dressed And furnish me dudheans and brandy-0! I'm thinkin', me excellent friend, You re (yeing that bottle of gin again; You wouldn't mind cryin' a drop!"— You're right, sir!" says Mister McFinnigan.

I have been suffering for ten years past from Liver Complaint and Dyspepale. I heard of Dr.
Schenok's coming out to Martin Koch's, and I thought I would go and see him, as my disease had increased in violence within the past two years,
and I had been under treatment of several doctors, from whom I received no benefit. In the early part of June of this year I went to see Dr. Schenck, and was examined by him with his "RESPIROMETER." I have been taking his "Rimmine by the Case of Mrs. McCoancell.

I had been affected with Disease of the Lungs for tour or five years, when I heard of Dr. Schenck coming to Martin Koch's. Previous to this time I had given up all hope of ever getting well, but Mr. Koch, whom I knew to have been curied by Dr. Schenck, urged my husband until he prevalied upon me to go and see the Doctor, who found both my lungs affected, the bronchial timbes were both diseased; when I breathed, they would rattle so that it could be heard distinctly—I have now taken his medicines for some times and find myself wonderfully improved, although not entirely recovered; I now find myself able to attend to most of my household duties, and have no doubt of my ultimate recovery. From the benefit I have received from Dr. Schenck's treatment, I would advise all persons similarly affected to apply to him when he makes his next visit.

I have been troubled for about two years with a pain in my breast. Late in the Spring of this year I heard of Dr. Schenck coming out to Martin Kboh's and I determined to call and see him, and get examined with his Respiromater. I did so, and also took all three of his medicines, according to directions, and I have been greatly benefited.
