PITTSBURGH POST

JAMES P. BARRA EDITOR AND PROPRIETO B TUESDAY MORNINGHISTAN. 28. CITY MATTERS.

Phillips & Best's Glass Works. We stated last week that Messrs. Phillips & Best, whose glass factory in the Second Ward wrs recently destroyed by fire, had erected temporary wooden buildings, ander the ordinance granting them that privilege, and were again in full blast. We visited the works yesterday and found the senior parinar, Mr. Phillips, superintending the removal of three pots cracked by their cooling at the time of the fire and the introduction of new ones. a difficult and by no means pleasant task, as the heat is most intense. We found the same number of hands at work as before the fire and were informed that they had been blowing all last week. The firm only stopped filling orders for one day, that on which their fac ory was burned. Although a large quantity of stock was destroyed with the building two detached warehouses escaped and they were enabled to fill nearly all orders as they came. They were in operation ten days after the fire and at the cid place, ready and willing to oblige their old customers and any number of new ones. Mr. Phillips desires, through us, to return the thanks of the firm to J. W. Arrott, agent of the London Northern Assurance Company and J. G. Uef, fin, agent of the Franklin Fire Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, for their promptness in adjusting their losses, $5,000 and $5,000 and $7,000 respectively, without claiming the usual
