ward, and ranning back to Duquesne Way. The exact origin of the fire is not known but it is believed to have been ourred in. caused by the ignition of some urpentine or varhish, which was being drawn from a barrel. The flames spread rapidly and branch of the business being confined to the foundry, the finished work and that in progrees was not injured. Operations in the foundry will be resumed to-day and a contract for the erection of a new building in place of the one burned has been already entered into, so that the one hundred and fifty hands employed in this extensive establishment will not be long out of work. The loss of Mr. Bidwell is between $50,- 000 and $60,000-the building alone hav-ing been worth $80,000 to $85,000. Oc the stock and building there is a total in-surance of $40,000, so that the loss to Mr. Didwell will not exceed, if it reaches $20,000 The insurance is divided thus Allegheny, $5,000; Monongahela, $5,000: Oitzens', $5,000; North America, $5,000; Springfield Fire and Marine. $2,500; Prophix Insurance Company of Hartford, $2 500: Hartford Insurance Company, $6 000; Hanhattan, N.
