This is an increase of about $1 060 on last year. -The revenue of the weigh scales for 1861 was $518.89 —The Market Committee have appointed Wm. Montgomery Market constable and Wm. Marshall Sweeper. During the rast year, at a cost of $187,450, 129 new buildings were erected, making the total number in the city 4 941 build ings. The number of families occupying the dwellings is 5.493, or sixteen more than were reported last year. From this statement it will be seen that nearly two thousand families are compelled to rent and occupy parts of houses, which they would not do if they could obtain small tenements. The population has not in creased much since the last report. The taxes levied for the year are: 10 mills for city purposes, 2 for poor and 1 mill for business tax No railroad tax was assessed, the Finance Committee having postponed that duty in view of the probability of compromise and their inability to understandingly levy a tax to meet the obli-

RECEUTING-HABRAS CORPUS,-Judge Adams yesterday delivered his decision in the case of an enlisted soldier named Hugh Donnelly, taken before him on a habeas corpus, sued out by Capt. J. Heron Foster, with whom he had enlisted. To recruit having been previously enlisted in Capt. B. H. Long's company, in Colonel Lehman's regiment, that officer had him arrested and confined and Captain Foster took out a writ to determine the matter.
The case came up for hearing yesterday morning, when Mr. Herriott appeared for Capt. Long and Capt. Foster for him-

The question was simply, who was en titled to the recruit ? Mr. Herriott, when saked for the authority of his client to entist men, produced a note from the State Exe utive Department, at Harrisburg, dated October 4, 1861, stating that if Mr. Long succeeded in getting up a company Gov. Curtin would have it accepted in some volunteer reg ment. Oaptain Foster did not recognise this as any authority to enlist after January 1st, for by order of December 28th all volunteer officers, engaged in recruiting, were to be relieved on January 1st, unless directed to report to Capt, Dodge, Eighth U. S. Infantry, who . General Superintendent of recruiting in Pennsylvania. Thirty-Seventh Congress.

WASHINGTON, Bebruary 7.—House.— Mr. Davis, of Pa., said no man was more carnestly desirous than himself of bring-ing to justice every man charged with fraud on the government. He was particularly interested in bringing one man to justice, namely, his own brother. He askd the committee and House to unite with nim in his efforts to have Captain Davis, Assistant Quartermaster, who is charged with crime, arrested court martialed, and if found guilty, and the penalty is death, baye him shot. His brother knew nothing A 'arge rebel mounted picket has been a counted picket has been accounted by the counted picket has been accounted by the counted picket has been accounted by the counter and the counter accounted by the counter accounter accounter and the counter accounter acc f the charge of defrauding the government and soldiers until it was published to the world through the report of the In Vastigating Committee. He, Mr. Davis, had in vain sought to have his brother's transactions inquired into and had been be-fore the committee with that view, but he was told that it would cost $5,00 to tring Osptain Davis to vindicate his reputation. All these investigations amount nothing unless means are taken to punish the wrong doers. His brother's reputa-tion was worth more to him than that of Two rebel Generals, one Colonel, two tion was worked more so an internal sums of any other man living. clate the sensitiveness of the gentleman touching the representation of his brother Captain Davis. He says that the first knowledge he had of the charge against him was in the report of the committee. Now the truth is he came before the committee and furnished them with certifled copies of the papers himself. If C.pt. Davis led the committee into error, by giving as true copies, those which proved not to be, so the committee are not to be blamed. If the Captain to the rebel cause, and took advantage of would come before the committee he the opportunity offered by the attack to would have a chance to correct his own mistake, but to enable him to do this it could hardly be expected that they should send for him. His friend, Mr. Davis, had done all he could to have his brother court martialed. He honored him for it, but the gentleman should not find fault with the mmittee that he had not been successful.

Mr. Davis replied that he had simply ntimated that his brother knew nothing of the charges of fraud against him till it hour and a quarter, have captured Fort was published. SENATE. - Mr. Hale, read a letter from turning storms of shot and shell, when, the Secretary of the Navy, saying that the getting within 800 hundred yards of the Department could probably build ten or enemy's works, we came to a stand and twelve boats in six months and double that number in a year. That the Departpoured into them right and left.

In the meantime the Essex had been disabled and drifted away from the scene of action, leaving the Cincinnati, Carondelet and St. Louis alone engaged. At precisely 40 minutes past one, the enemy struck his colors, and such cheering, such wild excitement as seized throats, arms and caps of the 400 or 500 sailors of the surplement of the memy and open them to the Trucer the enemy and open them to the Trucer the enemy and open them. the boats were to reduce the harbors of the enemy and open them to the Union army. The Secretary earnestly recommended the appropriation of ten million.

Mr. Haie, of N. H., said that the vessels already built by Capt. Ericsson was built by contract and was completed within a day of the time specified. The bill was awarded so as to limit the number to 20, and passed.
