

PITTSBURGH POST.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1862.

ANOTHER EXPULSION.

Senator Powell, of Kentucky, is to undergo a trial for treason in the United States Senate, upon charges preferred by Senator Wilkinson, of Minnesota.

The offense with which he is charged, however, is not so serious as that attached to Senator Bright, or his case would have been disposed of long ere this time.

Our manufacturers of guns, powder, military equipments and arms, were equally implicated up to a very moment when they actually broke upon the astonished country.

Of all those who have been most egregiously mistaken, in the progress of the rebellion, the extreme Abolitionists are most conspicuous.

Senator Sumner's resolutions have at length introduced his resolutions for the destruction of slavery in the South.

The rapidity of McClellan's blows have alarmed Sumner; he sees the probable restoration of the Union as it was, and that is what he has always been opposed to.

SENATION RUMORS.

The following from the Cincinnati Gazette is a wet blanket on the sensations who have been galvanizing this community with all sorts of rumors.

We incline to the opinion that all these rumors have been manufactured out of the fact that the War Department has likely been making some inquiries as to the capacity of Western roads to move expeditionally large bodies of troops.

The rumors regarding Gen. McClellan have been circulating in the city since the publication of the report of the Potomac army.

The London Times on Mason and Sidel!—The Designs of Europe, Richmond, January 31.—The London Times has given us a blow between the eyes entirely unlooked for, and not easily explained.

Another point which we should never lose sight of, is the attitude of England in regard to the possession of the great commercial transit routes of the entire globe.

The illness of Secretary Stanton. Secretary Stanton is reported to have quite recovered, but the rumors at times are so contradictory that it is difficult to be assured that he is really well.

The Will of Col. Colt. The will of the late Col. Colt, of Connecticut, has been made public. He leaves to his wife a gross legacy of $30,000; a life estate in the Mansion House, with surrounding grounds and outbuilding; a life estate in 1,000 shares of Colt Manufacturing Company stock, and a large proportion of the residue of the estate.
