SUICIDE OF A CHAPLAIN .- Rev. MI Gerwig, Chaplain of the Thirty-seventh Ohio regiment, committed suicide in camp near Gauley bridge, last Monday morning, by shooting himself through the head with slept. Deceased was a German, and was last year pastor of the Luthrean church at Lawrenceville. Just before the branking on a revolver, in the middle of the night, in the tent of Capt. Mosner, with whom he renceville. Just before the breaking out of the war heremoved to Cleveland, where he obtained the position he held at the time of his death. The cause of the act was not known, as he was highly esteemed by all in the regiment. He had burned all is papers on the night previous.

BENEFIT AND LAST APPEARANCE OF MISS THOMPSON.—The last opportunity of Miss Charlotte sented this evening. We regret to say that she has not received the encouragement she deserves here, and hope to see such an audience to-night as will show that she is appreciated It is indeed rare that so meritorious an actress appears in our city, and she should not be allowed to go away with a bad impression of our people. The bill offered for her benefit and last appearance must please all; it embraces the capital drams of the "Foundling of Paris," in which Miss Thompson plays Madelaine beautifully, and the "Little Treasure," in which she takes the lighter part of Gertrude. Let the house be filled.

ARTILLERY PRACTICE. -Col. Charles Angeroth's heavy artillery regiment, the one-hundred and twelfth Pennsylvania Volunteers, a portion of which was raised in this city, were exercised in firing on Monday, at their excampment, at Cameden, N. J. The regiment have seven six pounders and a 6-inch mortar for practice. Blank cartridges were fired from the can-The target was placed at a distance of three hundred and fifty yards. The men S are rapidly becoming proficient in the use of the guns, and the firing was quite precise. The regiment is full now, seven companies being in camp and three at Fort Delaware. Colonel Angeroth expects to form another regiment, and will proceed to Washington to obtain the necessary authority.

PROMOTED .- We are glad to note the advancement of Lieut. L. D. Myers, formerly connected with this office, but more recently one of the editors and proprietors of the Mansfield Herald. He has been for the Mansield Herata. He has been for some time quartermaster of the 64th Ohio regiment, and has been appointed Acting Assistant Quartermaster of Gen. Wood's brigade (the 20th) now at Stanford, Ky. North of Somerset. The brigade consists of the four regiments raised by Hon. Jnc.

ACCEPTED .- Dr. A. G. McCandless and Will. M. Hartzell, respectfully, elected. Chief and Second Assistant. Engineers of the Fire D partment, have signified their screptance to Geo. W. Leonard, Scretary of the Firemen's Association. If the election of these gentlemen was intended for a joke they have certainly "turned the tables" upon the Association. Both, however, will discharge their duties satisfactorily.

CITY MORTALITY.—The report of the Physician to the Board of Health shows 28 deaths for the week ending February 10th, viz. 10 males, 18 females, 7 adults, 16 children, 21 white, 2 colored. Two died of small pox, one of scarlet fever, one of messies. Dr. A. G. McCandless is now Physician to the Board.

Gov. CURTIN has signed the bill for the assumption by the State of the direct war tax assessed upon the Commonwealth.— This fact has been communicated to the Secretary of the Treasury and the amount will be paid over as soon as his receipt is forwarded to Harriaburg.

LIEUT. JAS. H. STEWART, of Captain Patterson's Cavalry, arrived in the city from Camp Blair, where the company now stationed, on Wednesday night. E will remain a few days among his friends and then return to camp.
