Second—To authorize the Governor, when informed by the President of the Confederate States of the argency of so doing, to call out both classes for home defence; to make rules and regulations for their organization into companies and regiments in conformity with the laws of Virginia, and require all places of business to be closed at 2 o'clock p. m, and the whole force drafted as aforesaid to turn out for ditcipline and instruction

Third—The ordinary draft to be ordered if necessary to defend any line of aproach to the town or city to which they elong; the extraordinary draft not to be required to serve beyond a distance of five miles from the limits of the town or city to which they belong.

Fourth—To include in such drafts all persons sojourning in the cities and towns for a period longer than ten days. Fifth - None to be exempt for any other reason than service in the State or Confederate States. If this is considered hard service, let
