PITTSBURGH: FRIDAY MORNING, FEB 21.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS. HARRISBURG CORRESPONDENCE House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Feb. 18, 1862.

The late glorious victories achieved by the Inion forces has filled every heart with just gratftule to the giver of all good for this signal victor over the enemy of our common country. Well may the loyal cities a rejoice that American valor has conquered the foe This will teach a good and wholesome lesson to ambitious bad men, that the Union and the Constitution, bathed by the blood of the sires and sages of the olden times, will not overlooked, or yet forgot en by the descenden of such illustricus patriots. The War Department and General McClellan and, indeed, the resident himself, is entitled to the gratitude of I men who love the land of freedom. There should be a general rejoioing all over the land, from one extremity to the other. Nor should the brave and gellant solders be forgotton, in this the day of our deliverance from despots, who have een countenanced by British intollerence. It is o be hoped that all Northern prisoners will now

e exchanged and returned to their homes and milies. They have been suffering from priva tion and taunts in Southern prisons. No man has suffered more than the daring and noblehearted Corcoran, of the brilliant 69th, Irish Regi-ment, of New York. Let the government see to their liberation in due time; for the honor of the country demand this. Will not Secretary Stanton attend to this? I am proud to add that my noble and generous friend, the Hon. "Tom" W lliams, fully agrees with me in the sentiments above exsed. When I write the booming of the canon is heard all over the State House grounds in onor of the ever glorious victories, which has rowned cur armies The Committee on Federal Relations reports which was unanimously adopted by the member resent. Several gentleman were absent, and it ine to them to say they were not present. Mr. Bigham, a joint resolution in relation to an adj uroment and for a special session of the Legislature. Laid over under the rules.

HON. EDWIN M. STANTON. The editorial of to day in the Tribune, pays the distinguished Secretary of State a merited complinent. He well remucke!, "while every honest seart rises in gratitude to God for the v ctories which afford so glorious a guaranty of the nation al salvation, let it not be forgotten that it is to Edwin M. Stanton, more than to any other indi widnal that these amplicious events are due. Our to throw the entire brigade into disorder. Generals is the field have done their duty with At once there was almost a panic. Some energy and courage.
