PITTSBURGH POST

MONDAY, PRBRUARY 24,

GEN. GRANT. The details of the battle at Fort Don elson begin to crowd us with the reali ties of that terrible struggle. It now appears that Gen. Grant, who has been suddenly lifted to a Major General, was inexcusably absent from the field when McClernand's brigade mas cut up, and the men needlessly slaughtered. The gallant Eighteenth, of Illinois; composed almost exclusively of Irishmen, commanded by the intrepid Col Lawlor, like ColeCorooran, refused to retire, although out of simmunition, and fired into by the Twenty-fifth Kentucky ordered up to relieve them, has but few men left to tell of their unflinching courage, whilst the amiable Gen. Grant could not be found upon the field. Gen. Smith relieved him from disgrace by charging upon the enemy, on Saturday evening, and holding his position, and his brave column had the honor of marching into the fort first on Sunday morning. Since the above was in type we have clipped the following from an Eastern per:

"Washington, Feb. 22.—Brigadier

General Chas. F. Smith is to be made a Major General of Volunteers, as an acknowledgement of his gallant services at the stamping of Fort Donelson. He is the only Major General appointed from Pennsylvania.

THE UNION AS IT WAS. This is the motto which embellished our big counting-room window on the evening of the 22d, and while it called sculled individual, who reads nothing but the Pittsburgh Gazette, insisted that the "Union as it was," meant the restor ation of Jeff. Davis, and Slidell, and Mason to the U.S. Senate. We tried to convince him that the Union survived even the death of Washington, and about Davis and his set, the country can be again united let who will be in the U.S. Senate. The Union as it was does not mean the restoration of Davis to power, on the lay them by for another season. When contrary it means his prostration or exile. It means the raising into power in at home, it is ninety-nine cases out of a the Southern States, a new set of states- hundred their own fault.
