Mr. Shannon had called up an act for the re'ief of Mary Richey, the widow of an old soldier HOUSE-AFTERNOON SESSION. The tennage tax bill came up in its order. Mr-Dennis replied to Mr. Williams in a well digested argument of considerable force and power, with some amusing hits styour member. Mr. Dennis noved to postpone the bill for the present or until such time as there should be some evidence from stating that the duties of the Committee was dif erent and had but little to do with the repeal, and trusted it would be met as it should be, by an hon-est vote of the people's Representatives. Mr. D replied to this in a few remarks by remarking that f the one half of what the gentleman remaked should be proved against this large corporation, he would vote side by a de with this very great man, and in the proper sense of the term treat, if he could divest himself of some of his visionary views taken on some things. Judge Shannon replied to the latter and argued at length against the postponement in an elodent speech. Mr. Williams stated that if it is the pleasure of this House, he did not care particularly, nor washe lenacious as to the wording of the preamble, and therefore he consented that the portion objected to might be stricken out. The motion was then taken on the postponement. Not agreed to. So the bill progressed. Mr. Cessna then addressed the House, and argued the propriety to strike out from the preamble that which is a reflection on the Governor, &c. Mr. Tracy replied to Mr. C-, and took the ground that the bill, with one exception was decidedly proper and could not be made better than the gentleman from Alleghany made it.

Mf. Williams again addressed the Fouse. He often referred to the old hero of New Orieans in the highest and most glowing terms and characterised Mr. Buchanan, if not a great President, he
