SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 8. CITY MATTERS.

Meeting of Oil Dealers. Friday afternoon, at the Merchants' Ex-change, to take some measures in relation to the heavy tax proposed to be laid on the articles named by the United States gov.

The meeting was organized by the elecu tion of Col. Thomas Donnelly, as President, and Wm Frew and John Russell, years as head of the Color of the C

Esqs., as Secretaries. Hon Wm. F. Johnston addressed the meeting, stating the object and detailing in Allegheny as one of the firm of Samuel the circumstances of his visit to Washing.

Dyer & Co. died at his residence on Last the circumstances of his visit to Washing-ton City, where he went to consult with the Committee of Ways and Means, rela-ness man in the prime of life and highly tive to the taxation of coal and carbon oils Not a single idea laid by him before the Committee had been embraced in the tax bill as reported. He had recommended an ad valorem tax of 25 to 80 per cent. on crude and refined cils, with a drawback of one half the duty on oils shipped abroad. He was informed that such a scale of taxation would be adopted, but a specific du-ty of five cents on crude and ten cents on refined oil had been levied. This would not only debar us from foreign markets, but would place Canada oil, which comes, taken before Mayor Drum, by officer in under the reciprocity treaty, at ten per | Monigomery, market constable, and fined

In reply it was stated that the articles this tax are specified in the treaty and oil, being a new article of commerce, would not probably be included, and there-fore liable to the regular import duty.

Mr. Speare, of Boston, stated that all unenumerated articles are, under the treaty,

A New York operator read the petition of the refiners of that city, asking that the tax be limited to ten cents per gallon on refined oils, with a drawback of one half on foreign shipments. They considered the value of crude oil merely nominal, and herefore the article was not a proper ob.

tiect of taxation. Mr. Frew read a letter from Hon. J. K. Moorhead, expressing himself in favor of the tax bill as it stands, under the impres-sion that a heavy tax on rock oil would bring a large revenue to the government from foreign countries. He moved the pointment of a committee of three to

Mr. Nevin thought it would be better to empower the committee to prepare a orial, to be sent to suitable parties in Washington, for presentation to the apharsh would be the operation of the proposed impost, and expressing the belief that the tax should be chiefly on refined oil, say $1 per barrel and not more than ten cents

The House proceeded to the considers. tion of the bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase coin, and for other purposes

Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, inquired of Mr. Sevens whether in his opinion it was no ment of the interest, which could not amout to more next July than $40,000,000, on the $650,000,000 of indebted tess. spting at a great sacrifice, which he did not choose to make, hence he suggested the passage of this bill, so that the passage of this bill, so that the specie sec-tion of the recently enacted U.S. Treasury Note law may not be repudiated.— Mr. Stevens also added that the new five hundred million bonds have not yet been

Mr. Pendleton expressed himself satis fled with the explanation and would vote for the bill. He, however, then offered an amendment, which was agreed to, re-asserting that the demand notes shall be re-ceivable for duties on imports. With this exception the bill was then just as it was originally introduced this morning.
