PITTSBURGH POST

BRIDAY MORNING, MARC I 14. CITY MATTERS.

The Forger M'Connei:-- flow he was Caught.

Washington Review "Immediately after committing the forgeries, and getting under false pretences some valuable goods from Thos. L. Birch and others, of this borough, M'Connell Oanada he went to Illinois, and engaged in business, which not proving very luscrative, he moved to Itaca, Indiana, where it appears he was residing at the time of his arrest. While at this place he got into the claws of a couple of sharpers are the same of the teacher, directors and parents into the claws of a couple of sharpers are the same of the teacher. had so "beautifully fleeced" him to Cincinnati, where his greatest trouble over one took him. Meeting a policeman he told him of the nature of his errand to the city, and was informed by that official of their whereabouts, and M'Connell set about having them arrested, which being had forged notes upon parties in Washington county, Pa, &z." The ropes having been turned upon M. Connell, he was placed under arrest, and officers telegraph ed to at Pittsburgh, who immediately in formed Sheriff Byers of his capture answer not being received in time, he was discharged for want of evidence, but as soon as a requisition could be obtained, he was again arrested and held in custody until placed in the hands of our Sheriff, who brought him here as above stated. It is said that M'Connell was married but a few weeks before his arrest to a beautiful and accomplished young lady of Itacs; of the truth of this, however, we cannot youch. M'C nnell once held a high place in the estimation of the business community of the northern part of this county, where he resided, he having dealt largely in stock and real estate, and was conside ed a sharp, shrewd and successful speculaappears that his necessities com pelled him to forge endorsements in order o meet pressing demands. Several of the notes with forged names thereon were subsequently cancelled by him, unknown to he parties whose names he had used But like all villians, he overdone the business, and is now in a fair way to suffer the penalties which his misdeeds deserve. His chances for a "long term over the river are very encouraging. His trial will doubtless be an interesting one, as his iorgeries were done up on a large scale and in a business like manner."

CHILD BURNT TO DEATH .- Un Friday last, the dwelling of a widow named Ster. ling, residing on the Youghioghen; river in Westmoreland county, was totally destroyed by fire, and one of her children perished in the ruins. Mrs. Sterling, have ing occasion to go to a neighbor, left he two youngest children, boys, one three years old, and the other younger, in the house and locked the door. On opening it the flames burst out, but she succeeded getting the older boy, though already badnineteen months were recovered from the ruins. Mrs. Storling is left entirely des. titute, with four children-the eldest boy fifteen years of age. The neighbors namedistely raised over $30 for her. The little boy who was rescued said he was trying to burn the cat with a stick, and she ran un-

DEATH OF A PITTEBURGHER IN CHAM. BERSUEG.—The Chambersburg Repository and Transcript says: "A stranger named."

J.nn D. Milier, from or near Pittsburgh, who has been stopping at Mr. J. Brown's Hotal for a few days, was found dead at his bed side on Sunday morning. Mr. Miller retired to his room in apparent good hesi'h Saturday night, and when found seemed to he to presed off without a strug-gle. He was in a knowing position, with his arms on the bed, as if in prayer. Mr. er was a man alvanced in life, and had been working at the carpentering trade near the town.

This is the free church organ of Great Britain, and is a true exponent of the sentiments of that class. The number is a good one, and will interest here quite as much as at home; indeed, we be lieve the circulation of the North British is larger in this country than in England. MR READ'S reading last evening was attended by a select audience, who were much pleased with the original poems read by the distinguished poet-artist, especials ly his pictures of artist life in Italy, which have a warmth and fresbness most agreea. ble. His manner of delivery is by no means pleasing, but close attention to the ludy of elecution will soon make him a fine deliverer, as he has all the necessary intelligence, with the true inspiration of genius. The matter last night was so good that the defects of voice, &c., were overlooked and the public generally was well pleased that Mr. Read could easily fill the hall another night.

A BRUTE -A fellow in human shape, named John Hughes, was arrested and taken before Mayor Sawyer yesterday morning, for exposing his person to two little girls on Second street. The father declining to prosecute under the penal code, Hughes was committed thirty days in default of a fine of $25, imposed for dishouse and locked the door. It was but a orderly conduct. We would like to see discovered smoke issuing from the house.

WINCHESTRE, Merch 12.-This celebra. ted town is at length recovered for the Union. The movement of our forces to Berryville and a reconnessance in this going up the Tennessee and Cumberland vicinity, completely succe ded in driving the enemy, and misleading them so that perhaps no more so than we were with this they did not know where to expect an attack and attributed the evacuation of Columtack. The consequences was that they bus to the influence of the gunbos commenced evacuating the place yesteriay afternoon.

Gen. Hamilton, meanwhile, advanced rom Bunker Hill-the Michigan cavalry farmer in the same neighborhood, attached bells to some of his flock, and on the same guns. The fight was soon over. The one my fled, leaving their guns, two in namber, several horses, and about thirty men The shells thrown among them by our artiliery were very destructive. Our whole loss was four killed and fifteen wounded, all of the First Marylands Shirmishing was continued all last night, the result being a few men wounded on both sides, but none killed on ours. At day break to day our column was again in motion, and advanced upon the town in time to see the rear guard of the rebels retire forever. Large stores of ammunition, provision and many horseshave fallen into our hands, and the Union flag flies triumphantly over Winchester.

The reception of our troops by the per ple has been most enthusiastic. Gon. Gorman has come in, and he and Gen. Hamilton are exchanging m .tusi congratula tions.
