Benjamin Boncum now began to see the awful responsibility of his office, and to "tremble from center to circum" erence"-for he had never officiated n that interesting capacity. They had not even done him the justice to inform him of the part he was expected to perform or he could have prepared. He had no preparation—no form—nor could any book be found high or low AFD FENDERS of the newest styles. Common having the ceremony. Hence, to take it "off hand" was the only change—an it "off hand" was the only chance-an
