

JAMES P. BARR, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

PITTSBURGH SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1862.

SENATOR BROWNING

The Senator from Illinois, the particular and personal friend of the President...

GENERAL McCLELLAN'S COMMAND

The enemies of this meritorious officer are still after him with the ferocity of a blood-hound...

THE ABOLITION GENERALS

There is not a man in the free States who is not willing to follow Mr. Browning in his determination to preserve the Union...

How Soldiers make Doughnuts

A member of Manning's battery, of Ship Island, in a recent letter, describes the way soldiers make doughnuts...

THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENTS OF REBELLIOUS STATES

The havoc occurring in the Abolition ranks in Congress, caused by the late gradual emancipation message of President Lincoln...

ASHLEY, (Rep.) of Ohio, from Committee on Territories, reported all providing temporary provisions

Mr. CRAVENS, (D.) of Indiana, from the same Committee, submitted a minority report, which takes the ground that the above bill provides that Congress has power to exclude certain States from the Union...

A Delicate Surgical operation

The Peoria (Ill.) Union has on Friday last operated on the youngest son of Rev. Dr. Johnson, for the relief of club-foot, by severing the contracted tendons at the ankle joint...

Dr. Evans, of this city, on Friday last operated on the youngest son of Rev. Dr. Johnson...

Mr. EADING, (U.) of Kentucky, also submitted a minority view of the Committee, saying that there is abundant reason for believing that the armed rebellion will be speedily subdued and put down...

GENERAL HUNTER

We publish the following from the New York Times at the request of Major Butler, who was Junior Paymaster until he was appointed Major General Hunter...

His Character and Antecedents—His Services on the Frontiers for Thirty Years—His Part in the Mexican War, and in the Early Troubles of Kansas.

What record comparing with this can be produced by any General officer, or person being offered a General's commission in the service of the United States?

More than twenty years ago he was commander of Fort Leavenworth, before there was a Capital District, and more than thirty years, altogether, he has been on frontier service, steadily, among the Indians, and has lived in the most hostile and dangerous parts of the country...

His services on the frontiers for thirty years, and more than half the time on the "war-path," during the Mexican War, and through the Indian War, and for the honor of his record of his services in the civil war...
