CITY MATTERS. WEEKLY OIL REPORT.—The Cil City Register gives the following report of the condition of the oil market: The oil business has improved consider ably since last week's report. Several buyers have come into this market, and are purchasing largely. A large amount of oil is being shipped. The river is in excellent boating stage, and our wharf presents an appearance of business, gladdening to both heart and eye. There is upwards of 80,000 barrels of oil on our ferent wharfs, and from present appear nces, the bulk of it will be shipped this week. Most of this oil will go East and to Europe direct, to fill previous contracts, but little being shipped on speculation or for a market. One of our largest buyers nformed us that he had purchased 5,000 parrels to be delivered at this point, at 75 cents per barrel, the purchaser finding the tasrels. This is intended for foreign aipment, and will no doubt net the purhaser a handsome profit. The oil market is in rather an unsettled condition from the reason of the heavy excise proposed to be laid on this product by Con gress. It seems absurd to tax oil five cents a gallon, which is worth at the pres ent market rate, scarcely a cent a gallon

Owing to the rise in Oll Creek, there is but little teaming done, but a large amount of oil is coming down in boats. In the New York markets we notice that Petrocontemplated levying of an excise by Congress, and business suspended. Crude oil is quoted at 15@16 cents, and refined at 30@40 cents, which is an advance on he refined. We give below the amounts of oil received and shipped from our dif ferent warehouses for the week ending March 11th. Abrams, Or. & Co, receiv ed 477 barrels of oil; shipped 2,084 barrels. Hanna's warehouse received 1,858 arrels; shipped 1,950 empty barrels; re ; yed 680. Michigan Rock O.l. Co. recelved 1,831 barrels; shipped 2,100; received 875 empty barrels. R D Cochran & Co. received 745 barrels. Freight to 40 cents. Barrels selling at

THE CONTINENTAL OLD FOLKS -This company, which has met with unqualified success during the present tour, gives the first of a series of old fashioned concerts, ent costume, at Masonic Hall, this evening. STOLEN GOODS IDENTIFIED .- On Fri day, the house of David Holland at Luke's Run, below the city, where John Brown, the colored man arrested at the fire on Friday morning stopped was searched upon a warrant issued by Mayor Drum. A pair of gaiters and a pair of slippers were found, which were on Saturday identified by John H.
