DAILY POST.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 31.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE.

Death of an Old River Man.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial announces the death, at the St. Charles Hotel Cairo, on Saturday night, the 22d, of Capt. Robert A. Reilley, a well known steamboat clerk and captain. For some twenty years he has been in the "lower trade." Previous to 1840, he was clerk with Capt. Eaton, on the old Louisville. The Michigan, constructed at Pittsburgh, was the last boat he built, and the old Aleck Scott the last he commanded. Capt. Bob was a warm-hearted, whole-souled man. Liberal to a fault, he was the very soul of honor. Many of our readers will remember Capt. Reilley, as the partner of A. B. Coleman, Esq., and one of the original lessees of the Burnet House, Cincinnati. He has stood his last watch. Peace to his manes.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

Jury trials in this Court will commence this week, the Grand Jury having found enough bills to keep the traverse jury, summoned for this morning, at work. A week of this term has been wasted already in doing nothing except disposing of a few trifling surety cases. This was the result of calling the jury for the second week, with the idea that the first week would be consumed in small motions, constables returns, &c., but the plan is a failure and will scarcely be adhered to. As we have already stated the business of the term will be light and unimportant.

New Flowing Well.

The Franklin Spectator says: The well of Dr. W. Hamilton, S. M. & W. Irwin & Co., on R. Irwin's part of the "Foster Tract" on Oil Creek, after having been sunk to the depth of 470 feet, commenced flowing last Wednesday, at the rate of over 1,000 barrels per day. It flows regularly, with but little gas, and it is the opinion of good judges that it may safely be set down as an 800 barrel well.

The Rolling Stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The business of the Pennsylvania Railroad has become so extensive that large additions to their rolling stock, which is already very large, are constantly required. During the last year, six first-class freight engines have been purchased to replace six old machines condemned, and the further additions consist of 14 first-class freight engines; 2 tank engines for Delaware extension; 2 tank engines for passenger trains on branch roads; 100 new stock cars; 160 house freight cars; 200 coal cars running in Broad Top trade; 200 coal cars owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company and run jointly with those owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in the Broad Top trade, and 450 cars owned by Westmoreland and Pennsylvania Gas Coal Companies. In addition to the foregoing, there have been contracted for, to be delivered this year, 16 first-class freight locomotives, 40 house freight cars and 200 gondola cars, adapted to the transportation of mineral oil, coal, lumber, &c. The total number of engines owned by the Company is 229, and the car equipment is as follows: passenger cars 84; emigrant cars 29; baggage 34; express 10; house ordinary freight cars 1,485; house powder cars 14; stock cars 400; gondola cars 737; drop-bottom coal cars 200; house freight cars (four wheel) 109; coal cars do. 127; gravel cars do. 88, and road and hand cars 234, making a total number of cars belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and in use on its line, of 2,992 eight-wheeled cars, and 558 four-wheeled cars. In addition there are a number used upon the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad. Total cars owned by Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 3,192 eight-wheeled cars and 578 four-wheeled cars.

City Councils.

The City Councils hold their regular monthly meeting to-night. In addition to the routine business the committee appointed to examine into the conduct of Hugh McMaster, Esq., Clerk of Common Council, in having the "Pennsylvania Railroad ordinance" recorded, will probably report. The result will, we presume, be a complete vindication of Mr. McMaster, unless the Council rejects the unanimous report of the Committee.

Arrest of "Mud Larks."

Four of this gang, which has recently obtained such notoriety by the unlawful proceedings of its members, were arrested on Saturday evening by the Mayor's police, for disorderly and riotous conduct, one of the members having attempted to rescue a prisoner arrested by officer Hamilton.—The whole four were sent up thirty days each, in default of paying their fines. The ringleaders are, we believe, all in jail now and the community will not be annoyed by them, for a time at least.

Lieut. Fricker.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, speaking of our Lieut. "Joe" Fricker, Chief of the Signal Corps in the Burnside expedition, at Newbern, says:

"At one time during the battle, the shells which the navy were firing at the enemy passed obliquely from our rear to our front, and it being feared by the General that they would kill our men, he ordered Lieut. Joseph Fricker, chief of the signal corps, to go to the river bank and signal the Commodore to correct his elevations. Taking his flagman, Lindsay, Lieut. Fricker went through the woods to the river and opened communication with the flag ship; not, however, until he had been fired upon by the gunboats, under the supposition that his black signal-flag was the no-surrender rag that patriotic Southerners are supposed to raise. By the way, I think I have not mentioned that the enemy on Roanoke Island saw these same black flags of Fricker's waving from ship to ship as we approached, and supposed that we meant to give no quarter.

Robert Heller's Second Week.

On Saturday, Mr. Henderson, Manager of the Theatre, learned that Senorita Isabella Cubas, and the ballet troope, announced for to-night, would be unable to fill their engagement this week and although Mr. Heller had made his arrangements for other points a re-engagement with him was effected. He will consequently remain here this week and give nightly entertainments in magic at the Theatre. Attractive programmes will be presented, and we have no doubt he will succeed in attracting audiences quite as large and fashionable as last week.

The Next Apportionment of Councilmen.

The number of City taxables, as returned by the assessors, is 9,554. The Councilmen next year will be apportioned as follows: First Ward, three members; Second Ward, two; Third, six; Fourth, one; Fifth, six; Sixth, four; Seventh, two; Eighth, three; Ninth, three.—The representation in the First, Second, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Wards, is unchanged. The Fourth Ward loses two members, the Sixth, one; the Third gains two, and the Fifth, one.

Reducing Expenses.

Conductors have been dispensed with on the Pennsylvania Avenue branch of the Pittsburgh and East Liberty Passenger Railway, to reduce running expenses, the drivers collecting the fare. Barricades have been put up on the rear platforms and passengers are oblige to enter at the front, as on the other line.

To Be Paid.

A Paymaster has reached Nashville to pay off Negley's Brigade.

Apostrophic Ode to Anderson.

PRESTIDIGITORIALLY EXTEMPORIZED.

Prodigious prestidigitator!
Mighty, mystic conjurator!
Man of wisdom—man of wonder,
Man to puzzle and dumbfounder!
By thy wand of wizard greatness,
By thy science and sedateness,
By thy golden, pearly tables,
By thy weird sartorial sables,
—thy phylacteries, spells and periapts,
—spirit-bells and spirit merry-tapt,
By thy intuspective rabbits,
By thy hocus-pocus habits,
By thy strange demoniac birds,
And thy runic magic words,
I most solemnly declare,
I asseverate and swear,
That thou art the strangest being
I have had the chance of seeing,
Having talent so supernal,
Yet allied to aids infernal,
Having science so profound,
With so much of humor bound,
Art in resource—quick in ruse,
Prompt to puzzle and confuse,
Sure to startle and amuse,
Paradoxes,
Painted boxes,
Thaumaturgy,
And theurgy.
Pans of silver, rings of gold,
Strange made things which can't be told,
All are thine thou awful human,
To bother man and awe poor woman!
Anderson,
Thou mighty one!
Thrice-crowned King of Wonderland,
All acknowledge thy command,
All thy high position own,
Monarch of the magic throne!
Crown we thee with mystic bays,
Sing we thee in odic lays,
Let thy subjects one and all,
Fill thy Court at Concert Hall.
Mayst thou live to crack a joke
Till there's no more Pittsburgh smoke.
May thy skill with us abide
Till the Alleghanies slide!

MARY MONONGAHELA.

Thunder Storm.

The terrible thunder storm, on Sunday morning, struck the house of Mr. Debacher, on Troy Hill, shattering the front side of the house nearly to pieces, and breaking the plaster and woodwork around. Two cupboards, and all the clothings, were burnt, and the china ware and other household things broken, but nobody was hurt, although the door of one cupboard flew into the room, where the family was sleeping. A terrible crash, a light flash, and a sulphuric smell, for some moments, was all that the terrified people observed for the time, till they afterwards found their dwelling partly destroyed. Mr. Debacher is a baker, and works for Mr. Shephard, on Liberty street. His loss will amount to $100 or $150; but it is hoped that there will be something done to help him.

Bill Ignored.

On Saturday morning, James McCreely, who has been in prison for some months, charged with having murdered his wife, was brought into the Court of Quarter Sessions and discharged by proclamation, the bill against him having been ignored. It will be remembered that McCreely's wife was found dead in the canal, near Duquesne borough, some time since and he, being dissipated in his habits, was arrested on suspicion; no prosecutor, however, appeared against him, and the bill was ignored.

Another Week.

The success of Prof. Anderson and his family in their magical entertainments last week has induced him to remain during the present week, and throw open Concert Hall at a uniform price of twenty-five cents. He promises a series of novelties, including the new bonnet trick, a marvel of magic, new developments in second sight, the decapitated pigeon, &c. In order to made the entertainments more attractive, new music, vocal and instrumental, will be introduced and J. H. Anderson, jr., will perform his greatest wonders with the ropes. To-night young Mr. Anderson takes a benefit and we hope he may be greeted by an overflowing house, as he deserves. To-morrow evening the Misses Anderson take a benefit and on Wednesday night the Professor himself will be a candidate for public favor, giving all his best tricks.

Gottschalk's Second Concert.

The rain prevented as large an attendance at Masonic Hall on Saturday night as was expected, but the audience was nevertheless large and select. All the singers were in fine voice and Gottschalk gave some of his best compositions, delighting the entire auditory. The concert was a decided success. The pianos used were from the celebrated manufactory of Chickering & Son, Boston, for which Mr. John H. Mellor is agent, and the tones of both were pronounced exquisite by the amateurs and some of the professionals present. These instruments are deservedly popular here and their sale is rapidly increasing.

Workingmen's Mass Meeting.

Pursuant to call a large and intelligent meeting of workingmen assembled at the Dollar Savings Bank Hall, Fourth street, on Saturday evening. There was no specific object, other than a general discussion of matters pertaining to the interest of the working classes. Mr. A. Jameson, late of Springfield, Mass., was invited to preside, Mr. A. Daniel was chosen Vice President, and Wm. Hadfield Secretary. Addresses were made by the President, John Scott and Wm. H. Moody, and G. W. Scott read a carefully prepared and well suggested paper, reviewing and defining the relations between employer and employee. The meeting adjourned at a late hour, after a few concluding remarks by Mr. Jameson.

Sentenced.

Jas. P. Wilson, a young man who plead guilty to stealing a coat and $125 from Wm. Campbell, of South Fayette township, was, on Saturday morning, sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary by Judge Sterrett. Previous to sentence he stated that the offence was his first; that he was driven to it by necessity and did not know there was any money in the pockets of the coat.

Investigations.

The Legislative Committee appointed to inquire into the alleged swindling of the State by the manufacture of "shoddy" clothing is here, pursuing its investigations. That appointed to examine into the means employed to procure the passage of the bill legalizing the suspension of specie payments arrived on Saturday morning and took rooms at the Monongahela House.

The Bank of Commerce.

The committee appointed to investigate the affairs of this Erie institution have made a long and elaborate report to the Legislature. It reflects very severely upon Mr. Knight, late President of the Bank, who is accused, by implication, of perjury and forging. He has, up to this time, occupied a high position.

Lieut. Col. Herron.

From our telegraphic dispatches we infer that Lieut. Col. Herron, of the Ninth Iowa, has been exchanged and is now at Rolla, Mo. He was in the hands of the rebels for two weeks after the battle of Pea Ridge, where he was taken prisoner. They were badly frightened and retreated rapidly, the first three days without anything to eat.

Her Name.

The correct name of the woman so seriously burned on Pennsylvania Avenue last Friday, is Mrs. Mahoney. She was improving on Saturday and hopes of her recovery were entertained.

Half Cash.

Wood, Morrell & Co., of the Cambria Iron Works, announce that hereafter they will pay half cash and half goods to their hands, the war having affected their business very seriously.

Seeking a Change.

Capt. Jno. P. Glass, of the United States Zouave Cadets, Co. B, now in the Sickles' Brigade, is making an effort to have his company transferred to a Pennsylvania regiment.

Counterfeits.

Counterfeits on the Blue Hill (Mass.) Bank, are being extensively circulated in the East.

THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAPH.

Latest from Island No. 10.

CAIRO, March 29.—After a lull the bombardment of Island No. 10 was renewed vigorously yesterday. The rebels appear to have received and put in position new guns of longer range.

There is nothing important from Tennessee.

An arrival from Memphis to-day reports general despondency. But little confidence is felt even in the large force concentrating at Corinth.

LATER.

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—The army correspondent of the Republican writing under date of Cairo 29th, says the firing on Friday, at Island No. 10, was quite heavy. The rebels opening from the new battery, mounting it is supposed with one hundred and eight pounders. The enemy could be seen cutting away trees and rapidly pushing forward other means of defense. They seem to have no idea of evacuating at present, and daily getting more cannon in position. Word reached the fleet last night that four rebel gunboats partly clad with railroad iron appeared below Point Pleasant, but as Gen. Pope's batteries extend almost a continuous line of fifteen miles. It is not believed that they can force a passage ashore.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Bayard Taylor to-day decided to accept the Secretaryship of Legation to St. Petersburg, which has been tendered him.

The Committee of Ways and Means of the House are to-day hearing the views of the various delegates who complain of the heaviness of the imposts on certain articles under the tax bill.

A disposition prevails to abolish specific duties and substitute ad valorem per centages on various articles.

General Cadwalader has been appointed a Major-General of Volunteers. His friends express much gratification at this recognition of his merits.

Mr. Dawes, in a speech on Alexander Cummings, after showing important discrepancies between Cummings' sworn testimony and a subsequent letter, said that ex-Secretary Cameron had signified his desire to appear before the Committee, to explain his connection with Cummings' transactions. The Committee appointed a meeting for the purpose, and notified him. Cameron didn't come. The Committee sent a messenger for him; still he didn't come, but contented himself with picking a quarrel with Mr. Van Wyck, on Sunday in a public hotel, calling the Committee liars and thieves.

The Union troops advanced yesterday upon the rebel outposts beyond Warrenton Junction, driving the enemy, estimated at ten thousand, before them along the line of the Gordonsville Railroad.

The road beyond Warrentown Junction is utterly destroyed—bridges burned, the crosstics burned, and the rails bent into every conceivable shape.

The Union troops are in excellent health, and are pushing after the retreating rebel army as rapidly as circumstances will allow.

The telegraph lines follow the advancing army, and offices are established from day to day as engineers require.

A reconnoissance was made yesterday by our forces beyond Warrenton Junction. A body of the enemy's cavalry retreated as our troops advanced, and burned the bridge over the Rappahannock. There was some slight skirmishing, but no loss of life or any wounded on our side.

A military department, to be called the Middle Department, and to consist of the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, the Eastern shore of Maryland and Virginia, and the counties of Cecil, Harford, Baltimore, and Ann Arundel, in Maryland, has been created. Major Gen. Dix, of the United States Volunteers, is assigned to the command of the Department, the head quarters of which are located at Baltimore.

No troops in the United States service will hereafter pass through the City of New York, without reporting to the United States military authorities enlisted with the duty of providing subsistence and transports in that city. The reports must be made, and information obtained at the office, No. 79 White street.

The Governor of New York has decided upon the following prices to be charged to the non-commissioned officers and privates of the several regiments for that State, now in the field. For articles of clothing heretofore furnished them by the State, the said prices having been fixed from the average cost of the several articles, viz: For each infantry over coat, $8,63; infantry jacket, $5,43; ditto trowsers, $3,50; ditto fatigue cap, 85 cents; ditto shoes, pegged, $1,20; ditto sewed, $1,98; ditto drawers, 57 cents; ditto socks, 24 cents, ditto shirts, 80 cents; blankets $1,95.

Important from Arkansas.

ROLLA, March 29.—Reliable persons just from our army in the Southwest say, that the rebels some 3,500 under Van Dorn and Price have retreated entirely across Boston Mountains, and are now at Van Buren and Fort Smith, receiving supplies from Memphis and Little Rock, via Arkansas river which is high.

The Texas troops are much disheartened at the death of McCulloch, and Arkansas felt the loss of General McIntosh very severely.

The rebels are badly off for clothing and shoes.

Pike's Indians have returned to the Indian nation. They were not formidable in battle, being panic stricken at the effect of our Artillery.

Price received a Major Generals Commission in the Confederate service on the 16th.

One regiment of Texas troops reached Van Buren on the 15th to reinforce Van Dorn and more were expected from Louisiana. The whole rebel reinforcements will not exceed 5,000 in the next six weeks.

Lieut. Col. Herron of the 9th Iowa, who was taken prisoner, was in the hands of the rebels two weeks. They were badly frightened and retreated very rapidly, and for the three first days of their flight, had nothing to eat. Their cannon and baggage train might have been easily captured.

General Curtis' army fell back to Keitsville, to secure forage.

Arkansas North of Fayettville is entirely eaten out.

Our forces are now camped at the head of Cross Timber Hollow, where water and forage are plenty.

Our pickets extend into Arkansas and the rebel pickets come North to the top of Boston Mountains.

Fayettville is unoccupied. Very little Union sentiment has been developed in Arkansas.

Important from Corinth.

CAIRO, March 28.—A gentleman returned here this morning from Pittsburg and Savannah, on the Tennessee, and reports that on Sunday and Monday last General Sherman made a reconnoissance in force to Pea Ridge, near the line, on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, where it had been reported the rebels were fortifying. The reconnoissance was complete in every particular. No enemy found, however, in the neighborhood. The expedition returned to Pittsburg on Tuesday. Our forces at Pittsburg are being rapidly augmented, steamer after steamer arriving continually, laden with fresh troops.

The latest advices from the rebel camp at Corinth, give the strength of the force there at 70,000. Recent indications relative to the persistent efforts of the rebels to fortify the town of Corinth, would seem to demonstrate an intention to make a vigorous resistance there. It is, however, the general belief of all prominent officers of Gen. Grant's command, that the rebels will retreat on our approach, but should a battle occur at Corinth, it will doubtless be one of the hardest fought and bloodiest affairs of the present war.

Arrival of the U. S. Gunboat Huntsville.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The U. S Gunboat Huntsville arrived from Key West this evening with dates to the 25th inst.—The steamers Niagara, South Carolina, Mohawk, Waterwich, Marion and eight other vessels were at Key West. The steamer Magnolia recently captured from the rebels was to sail for New York on the 24th inst. The ship Nightingale sailed on the the 21st for Tortugas and the Pass.

Advices from the Mississippi passes state that heavy firing was heard from the head of the passes, where some of our vessels had gone.

The remainder of Commodore Porter's mortar fleet had all left Key West together with some of our gunboats. New Orleans was supposed to be their destination.

A considerable amount of cotton is stored at Apalachicola, which place is defended by a rebel battery of thirteen guns and three thousand men.

The steamer Cuyler at Key West from Havana, reports quite a number of rebel vessels there.

A French man of war from Vera Cruz at Havana, had twenty-seven cases of yellow fever on board.

Two of the crew captured on board the steamer Magnolia, report great preparations at New Orleans to resist the expected attack. Several gunboats were building and martial law would soon be proclaimed.

The U. S. steamer South Carolina has been ordered to Boston.

There is no truth in the reported capture of Mr. Yancey. He engaged passage on the schooner Mallory which was captured, but he changed his mind and was to sail in the schooner Break O' Day.

The Huntsville has two hundred bales of cotton and two hundred and thirty-seven bales of tobacco, captured from the rebels. All her officers and crew are well.

From Port Royal.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The steamer Empire City, from Port Royal, has arrived. The following is from the New South newspaper of the 22d inst.:

General Sherman visited Jacksonville on the 19th inst., and was waited on by a committee of citizens, who represented the feeling of all in the town as strongly for the Union. Many of the inhabitants had left Jacksonville with the rebels, who threatened to return and hang all that remained. Bands of rebel regulators or guerrillas were pillaging and destroying all the property of suspected Unionists, under orders from the rebel General Trapier, at Jacksonville. The night before our troops arrived, these regulators burned a large foundry, several saw mills, five million feet of lumber, a large hotel, and dry goods warehouse, supposed to belong to the Unionists and threatened to burn the entire town. But the gunboats making their appearance they postponed their threats, and many are returning to Jacksonville, among whom are rebel deserters anxious to take the oath of allegiance and who state that the desertions will be numerous.

The sentiment in Eastern Florida is declared to be loyal and many are willing to take up arms to defend themselves against the rebel tyranny. On one occasion when the regulators were reported as coming, even the women seized arms to protect themselves.

The National troops are treated to every hospitality the town affords and the people state they will go with the gunboats, but measures have been taken to fully protect them. One of the gunboats had been one hundred and twenty miles up the St. Johns river, above Jacksonville, meeting with no opposition, white flags being displayed by the inhabitants, who claimed protection. The steamer St. Mary's and yacht America, were found sunk, but the captain of the Ottawa was raising them. Pensacola has been evacuated, including also Forts Barrancas and McRae and the rebels announce the entire abandonment of Florida. The rebel troops raised in Florida had been ordered off but refused to go.

Col. Whipple, of the ninth New Hampshire regiment, has resigned, and Lieut. Col. Bell now commands that regiment, with his headquarters at Augustine.

Gen. Wright was about removing his headquarters from Fernandina to Jacksonville. Some eighty inhabitants of Fernandina have returned to their homes.

The steamer Oriental had arrived from New York with 30,000 letters for the Port Royal troops.

The news of our victories greatly rejoiced the troops.

Gen. Sherman has issued a proclamation to the people of Florida in which he states that the troops of the United States had come to protect the legal citizens in which their property will enable them to resuscitate the Government in that State, all loyal people who remain or return to their homes in the quiet pursuit of their lawful occupations shall be protected in all their constitutional rights. The sole desire and intention of the government is to maintain the integrity of the constitution and to reclaim the States that revolted from the national allegiance to the former, prosperous and happy condition. He expresses great satisfaction at the evidences of loyalty and recommends the citizens to assemble in the cities, towns and precincts, and throw off the sham government forced upon them to swear true allegiance and fidelity to the constitution of the United States, organize a government and elect officers in the government all ways of the past. When this is done he predicts a return to prosperous and happy times. Immunity from wast and suffering and the enjoyment of the fruits of their honest labors, the sweets of happy homes and the consolation of living under the wise and salutary laws due only to an industrious and law-abiding people. At a meeting of the loyal citizens of Jacksonville on the 20th, a declaration of rights, a protest and resolutions were unanimously adopted, to the following effect: That no State has the constitutional right to separate from the United States; that the act of secession adopted by the State Convention of the State of Florida is void, being in conflict with the Constitution, in never having been submitten to the people for ratification: that Florida is an integral part of the United Stetes, subject to its constitutional jurisdiction and we belive that her citizens will hail with joy the restoration of the government, bringing deliverance from the terrors of unrestrained military despotism, they protest against all the acts and ordinances of the convention depriving them of their rights as citizens of the United States against the despotism which denied the freedom of speech and of the press.—Against the contributions or money, property, labor and military enlistments forced upon them against the tyranny which demands the abandonment of their homes, property and the expose of their wives and children, to sickness, destitution, famine and untold miseries against the barbarous policy which sends a brutal soldiery to pillage, burn property and destory life as a punishment for remaing in their homes against the government who threatened to hang them, because they would not tamely submit to such indignities. Having been released from such dangers and indignities and restored to the government of the United States, and the reign of terror having passed, it now becomes them as loyal citizens to raise up a State government, and we recommend that a Convention of all loyal citizens be called forthwith, to organize a State government of the State of Florida; also that the chief of the military department of the United States be requested to retain sufficient force to maintain order, and to protect the people in their persons and property.

Arrival of the Steamer New York.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The steamer New York from Southampton with dates to the 19th inst., arrived at a late hour to-night.

GREAT BRITAIN.—In the House of Lords on the 17th inst., Lord Normandy moved for the dispatches relative to the press prosecution in Italy.

In the House of Commons on the 17th inst., Mr. Griffith asked about the arrest of the purser of the Sumter, and the Ex-Consul at Tangiers and their removal on board the U. S. vessel as prisoners. Mr. Layard explained and expressed the earnest hope that when the President knew the circumstances they would be released.

FRANCE.—The late success of the U. S. troops created the belief among the French merchants that peaceful arrangements will shortly be made, causing a resumption of commercial relation. The effect in the manufacturing districts was favorable.

GREECE.—The royal troops had taken all the exterior fortifications of Ilanphia. The insurgents of Syria had proclaimed the second son of Victor Emanual King of Greece as Otho second.

TURKEY.—The Turkish squadron had sailed for Lower Albania. The Turks occupied Grahavo in Herzegovina on the 17th inst.

LONDON, March 19.—In the stock exchange the rate is 2 per cent. American securities is firm.
