Fight in Missouri, &c. St. Loris, March 31?-Dispatches refeated, with a loss of fifteen killed and a large number wounded. The Federalshad several wounded, but none killed.

There is nothing important from the Tennessee river. It is not expected that active operations will commence antil the arrival of General Buell's army unless our forces are attacked by Beauregard.

Information has been received at head-quarters that a detachment of the first lowa Cavalry, under Capt. Thompson, overtook the guerilla band of Col. Parker, on the night of the 20th inst., about ten miles west of Warrenshurg. There were left agreed and the weakness, seized him to the clothes—I then dashed him to the ground—then again: he was dead.

Afterwards I repeated what I had done.
At the moment I regretted I was able to kill but one.
