of all newsboys for one cent, and every person attending Concert Hall on Saturday It is stated that a change is contemplated It is stated that a change is contemplated in the style of uniforms now worn by our officers. Among the officers of the regu-lar army the proposed change meets with much opposition, but it does not attract so much attention among the volunteers. A strong objection to the action of the Board is in not allowing each army corps to ar-stange its own uniform. As the recom-visendation of the Board have to be passed upon by the Secretary of War it is possi-tor. Board of Health, reports the interments upon by the Secretary of War it is possi-ible that none of them will be adopted. It as follows, from March 24th to April 1st, ible that none of them will be adopted. It is evident, however, from the agitation of the subject, that some essential changes in uniform will soon be made. Many urge that the present style of officers' dress has too much tinsel and glitter about it, while others would make it still more showy: but the Board has the matter in hands wow, and doubtless if they order a change

now, and doubtless if they order a change, it will be made for the best.

Prof. Anderson at Concert Hall.

The stay of Prof. Anderson, the Wizard The stay of Prof. Anderson, the Wizard of the North, and his family, in our city, is drawing to a close. It has been a most successful and profitable one for them; as during the first week Concert Hall was nightly filled, and was now, when it night be supposed that the Pittchurgh public had enough of magic, the a'udiences are fairly remunerative.
