THE FRENCH MINISTER AT But this humiliation will not prove fatal to the 'ex-Secretary; he will survive it. RICHMOND. The visit of the French Minister at Washington, to the rebel Capital, last wask, has given rise to quite a variety of is considered too ostentations, not to in-dicate some attraordinary future develope-mant. A keen correspondent of the Energy Port; states the visit was merely to stated to the interests which some of his countrymen have in large quantities of tobacco, now stored at Richmond. An-other engicious person denies this tobacco tobacco, now stored at Richmond. An John, and in six or twelve months after, other expections person denies this tobacco Forney instead of talking and writing "in-for the possession of Kansas is not likely other engicious person denies this tobacco story, and insists that the mission was to Jeff Davis himself, to dissuade him from burning the cotton crop as threatened by the rebels, should the Union forces succeed in pensitrating the rebel Cotton States. This at ton conjecture is more probable the at he tobacco speculation. A failure of our praise just as it suited his interest and purposes. By the way, we haven't heard than the tobacco speculation. A failure of our cotton crop, will entail great misery spon millions in France as well as in Bag-land. Some of greater penetration think this visit to have been of a political char-acter; not indicative of France scon re-cognising the Confederacy, but for the purpose of pursuading the rebel President Merchants and others withing to react
