Is it because John Brown, with his negro and half-crazed white followers, if unopposed, would have turned the murder ous hand of the brutalized negro against innocent women and children, and would have wrapped the homes of a then peace this Commonwealth in flames, the "glory hallelujah" is to ascend on high? Is it because rapine and murder have become emobiled, that this incendiary musical effusion is headed "a song that is now rather a song that is now ra ing such sentiments? Never, sir. Do such impious doctrines correspond with the record of the past; and accord with the justice of the present?

Mr. Speaker, in attempting to vindicate the constitutional rights of such of the people of the South as are loyal, I will not be misunderstood. I cannot in any way sympathize with the traitors. From my inmost soul I loathe and abhor them.

To the blind followers of the leaders, when they shall return to their allegiance and recognize the supremacy of the law, it might be well and wise to extend amnesty and pardon. In this we would only be guided by the experience of the past. But at the same time I would punish the leaders and immediate authors of this gigantic or and fearful rebellion, with all the powers and penalties of offended law.

I would arrest the Davises, the Tombaes, I would arrest the Davises, the Tombaes, I would try them for treason, convict and banner cry of Liberty.
