Respectfully yours,

J. K. Moornead. year, always in a majority of not less than forty thousand. Last year, at the commencement of the war, fearing togo before the people upon an abolition platform, such as had been a thousand times promulgated by Mr. Seward, these politicians became suddenly remarkably liberal, inviting all those who were in favor of sustaining the government to join them. This answered the purpose, and a junction was formed between such gentlemen as the fa natic Horace Greely upon the one hand, and the extreme, pro-slavery Breckinridge leader. Daniel S. Dickinson, on the other. Here was indeed a cessation of political hostilities; patriots forgetting past differ-

And some of the Republican papers, too, are quite indignant at this new attempt of the Abolition leaders to deceive and betray the rank and file. The Oswego Times says of the movement and the "slate." that "Republicans are, of course, expected to desert their party and go over at once to the fortunes of the new ticket, chiefly made up of political castaways, who, despairing of success with their old organizations, have adopted this last desperate stroke for place and spoils."

The Defenses of New Orleans.

At New Orleans we have $2,000 infantry, and as many more quartered in the immediate neighborhood. In discipline and drill they are far superior to the Yankees. We have two very able and active generals, who possess our entire confidence, Gen. Manafield Lovell, and Brig. Gen. Ruggles. For commodore we have old Hollins, a Nelson in his way.

We are ready to give the Yankees a hot reception when they come. Our only fear is that the northern iswaders may not appear. We have made such extensive preparations to receive them that it were vexations if their invincible armida escapes the fate which we have in store for it.
