To Governor Curtin: A New York friend, in Gen. McClellan' dvance, writes me as follows: The battle of Williamsburg was a mest brilliant engagement and the victory com-plete. The fighting lasted from daylight to dark. Hooker's and Smith's Divisions and parts of Casey's and Kearney's were actively engaged all day, and an equal force held in reserve. The enemy had forty thousand under Johnston, Longstreet and Early; their troops being principally from

The 102d, 93d, 49th, 98th, 26th, 105th, 57th and 63d, Penn'a Regiments and perhaps others were engaged. Averall's 3d cavalry did the advance and did magnifi-cently and Col. Small, who is wounded, fought well. The 105th, 63d and 57th, under Jamison, first entered Williamsthere for duty. The 23d was first in the chief fort, and Berney's brigade was under fire all day. The enemy's fortifications at

Williamsburg are most formidable.

The Pennsylvanians have acquitted homselves in a manner worthy of veterans. The Penn's sick and wounded who ar rived at New York in the Daniel Webster have been brought by a special agent ap-pointed by the Governor for that purpose to Philadelphia, where they are now in the hospital and being kindly cared for: 14 men were too ill to be moved and are now in charge of a Penn'a Physician in New York City Hospital,
