

The Union as it was: The Constitution as it is!

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 13.

L. PETTENGILL & CO., NO. 37 PARK ROW, NEW YORK, and 6 STATE STREET, BOSTON are our agents for the Daily and Weekly Post in those cities, and are aused to take Advertisements and Subscription for us at our Lowest Rutes.

22 Beading matter on every page.

NEW ORLEANS AND RICH

Official intelligence has been received of rebels thought that the capture of Washington City, the driving out of legitimate power, and the possession of General Scott, would be the means of having them recognized as the government by France left in canal boats, in a very decorous and orderly manner. Indeed, the Fathers of patriots.

the Confederacy appeared quite thoughtful and oppressed at their departure from Richmond. Whether this was occasioned by the recollection of pleasing reminiseences, or the fear of being captured by the Union forces, is a point which our Richmond cotemporaries have not yet decided. That they are gone, however, with the womption as the country of the property and people of the country of the first property of the proper catery in our front—yet our people should good of the country, anieth yet our people should good of the country, anieth await with unflinching spirits, the Mr. Wighther—I think I ing the General from the malignant persection of his enemies.

The Press may felicitate itself upon not being one of those friends from whose friends from whose friends from whose friends from the meting the traitors of the South, and the other enemies of my country known it did endeavor to damage him by silken, sly and insinuating slander. It endeavor to damage him one that could be easily accomplished, when undertaken, thus depriving him, in advance, of any credit for the achievement. Last weeks' business in Virginia therefore is shoth, whether they are in arms against the enemy's power on water.

It is my first and earnest desire to overthrow everywhere those who are opposed to it, whether they are in arms against the enemy's power on the very flow water.

It is my first and earnest desire to overthrow everywhere those who are enablased the citizens to hear them they every man water.

It is my first and earnest desire to over throw everywhere those who are nead and every throw everywhere those who are not and a not to unit with the furly of the first time at 10 of lock this morning, salted by the general Huger. The nation and anomated his horse, and ecompanied by his staff, rode to the Jackson Railroad, where he took the last car, but gave that the object of this meeting is to organize a plan of action to meet and defeat certain propositions before Congress. I am in favor of the administration of the control of the deliverance from bondage which must soon come to them. The General them nounted his horse, and all the other enemies of morn dealings, which place was occupied by General Huger. The nation and companied by his staff, rode to the Jackson Railroad, where he took the last car, having already sent in the control of the first time at 10 o'clock this morning, studed by the guarder. Army of the Mississippi, near Parmington. The General them n against the young commander a little too far; the game was beginning to attract public attention, and the public were beginning to form an opinion which had its effect, in alarming them for their political future. Accordingly, we find the means the first of the serious of the of the crew, Mr. Lovejoy, seizing time by the forelock, by offering a resolution in Congress, which was unanimously adopted, returning thanks to the "Almighty and I am not prepared now, for one, to take the preliminary stars for a party present the reliminary stars for a party present the preliminary stars for a party party present the preliminary present th of the crew, Mr. Lovejoy, sating time to the foreleck, by offering a resolution in the foreleck, by offering a resolution in the trae object of the inesting. Party in the trae object of the inesting and the mainter of the control of the public property, and the mainter of the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property and the public property and the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the public property, and the mainter of the inesting and the control of the inesting and the co

Important Political Movement.

Meeting of the Compressive Members of Congress Prelim-illary Stops for the Fernation of a Patriotic Union Party-Speeches of Messrs, Hallory, Crittenden, Stole, Heuzies, Sheffield, Cravens, Kellogg and Richardson.

Washington, May 10, 1862. In accordance with previous notice, there in the hope that there might be some cou-cert of action to destroy the enemies of the A massenger was eart of action to destroy the enemies of the Lovell. In the interval a number of citito future results that were not only expect d, but also needed and demanded by the sation with the United States naval offi we were threatened with destruction by who bore the testimony with apparent abolition and secession, and to unite against earnestness to the vigor and valor of the the capture of New Orleans, and the fall all schemes which are imperilling our rea patriotic purpose-none other than to remarked that Capt. Parragut deeply represerve and promote the vital interests of which prevailed in the city in the destrucrecognized as the government by France and England. The failure of that modest lasting welfare. This is the object, and that the destruction was of our own properties forced them to sojourn for a while in Nashville, prior to taking up a permanent abode in Richmond. The pressure of events has forced them from enterprise forced them to sojourn for a while in Nashville, prior to taking up a council I am glad to be. Our acts are permanent abode in Richmond. The permanent abode in Richmond. The pressure of events has forced them from that pleasant location, and it is quite difficult that pleasant location, and it is quite difficult that pleasant location, and it is quite difficult to perceive at present where the Congive that attention to the performance of such duty in the most wise and ellicient flow for the most wise flow for the form from the form of the flow flow for the most wise and ellicient flow for the most wise flow for the flow f ted tending to insult or to exasperate the our posterity, and the present and future pre-

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON. FROM NEW ORLEANS,

REBEL ACCOUNT OF SEE CAPTURE Speeches of Pierre Soule and Gen Lovell.

The Delta, of April 26, contains a long count of the capture of New Orleans. giving the following account of what occurred after our officers entered the city The Mayor received the officers in his office with proper dignity. Capt. Bayles In accordance with previous notice, there stated the purport of his mission. He has was a meeting of the Conservative members as the conservat was a meeting of the Conservative members of both branches of Congress, in the Hail of Representatives, this afternoon, for the purpose of consulting as to the best means to defeat the secessionists and abolitionists.

Shortly after the hour appointed for the city Hall. The Mayor replied he was not the military commander of the city, that he had no authority to surrender of the city, that he had no authority to surrender of the city, that he had no authority to surrender of the city, that he had no authority to surrender of the city, that he had no authority to surrender of the city and would not do so but the theorem. meeting, Mr. Malloux, of Ky., arose and it, and would not do so, but that there was stated the reasons that had induced the call a military commander now in the city and for such a consultation. It had been made he would send for him, to receive and repeople of the country. The object wasto cers. The Lieutenant seemed to be a do good service in this time of peril, when courteens and well behaved gentleman, the capture of New Orleans, and the fall of Richmond is reported. The details of the reduction of the rebel capital will affect the most pleasant chapter in the history of the rebellion. One year ago, the we are assembled, as I understand. for of the conversation, however, this officer to the great purpose of saving our republic. General Lovell, of the army of the Con-We should take such action as men and federate States, commanding this departance.

On motion of Mr. Cravens, of Indiana, and Coston Bayles stated his mission to Mr. Cox, of Ohio, was chosen secretary demand the surrender of the city and the opposite side of Tanner's creek, of the meeting.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, said we Custom Horse, Mint and Post Officehad better have some unity of action, for adding that he was instructed by Captain and our men, being without myelest range.

resignation; the Picaguna of April 28th, plaintively says: "The circumstances, sad and melancholy as they are, in which we are now placed, require on our part, the exercise of the utmost wisdom and forbearance." The Crescent of the same date, less forbearing, says:

"While we counsel order and discretion with bar citizens—that no act be committed to the course they will be used to the committee of the plaintively supported and the immense such cases and party consideration pairs before the same date, less forbearing, says:

"While we counsel order and discretion with bar citizens—that no act be committed to consideration and the person and that we may not wisely for ourselves and but the party consideration. We meet here to-day with bar one desire and party consideration, when the city even against shelling. He did not think he would be justified in doing so,—the would then proceeded to the City Hall, in company with bar one desire and party consideration, with bar one desire and party consideration. The citizens—that no act be committed to our party the city even against shelling. He did not the city was surrendered to think he would be justified in doing so,—the would be justified in doing so,—the would the city even against shelling. He did not the city was surrendered to think he would be justified in doing so,—the would be proved to the city limits, but that a large namber even of the women of the purpose, metGen. Wool with a flag of trace at the city limits, and after a brief to the city work and the city limits, but that a large namber cven of the women of the wome many persons to possess themselves of ar-ticles of private property, from the levee, and stores and warehouses in the vicinity. The Mayor has issued a proglamation ware tails of events at Norfolk : soon made between the Mayor and Gen.

LATEST ARVS T

The Occupation of Norfolk.

soon made between the Mayor and Gen.
Wool that the city should be given up, on the promise of Gen. Wool that private property should be respected.

During the march on Norfolk three regimental caralry camps were found deserted, apparently only a day or two since.

General Weber's regiment, New York Twentieth, was advanced on the landing to reconnoiter, and some six miles from the beach, at the half way house, so called, found a place which had been prepared with considerable care for a battle field;

Wool that the city should be given up, on the promise of Gen. Wool that private of the floating wreck, and all the earth of the floating wreck, an the country, and adopt some wise plan of the cotton and other things. The action to secure its redemption and every Wayor remarked that he differed from him the trees and bushes had been felled and a et his regret at the destruction of Nortolk, May 10.

Converd Locall interrupted him. The city of Norfolk having he took place, which made the earth and water tremble ar mile fround. In the midst of the bright flames which shot up through the distant blace, the timbers and iron of a monster steamer could be seen dying through the air, and no doubt was entertained that the workship.

The Occupation of Norfolk.

DESTRUCTION OF GOSPORT NAVY YARD.

Ceased to exist.

Flag Officer Goldsborough, on receiving this report, ordered two armed naval tugs, the Zonave and Dragon, to proceed towards Crancy Island to make a reconnoisance and secretaring the truth of the t sance, and ascertain the truth of the rum Immediately after they had turned the Point, the Monitor and F. A. Stevens BALTIMORE, May 12.- The Old Point tails of events at Norfolk:

Norfolk, May 10, 60'clock p. m.—Gen.

Wool has just entered the city, in company with the Mayor W W. 1.—1.

Norfolk, May 10, 60'clock p. m.—Gen.

Wool has just entered the city, in company with the Mayor W W. 1.—1.

Norfolk, Lie Monitor and F. A. Stevens steamed up in the same direction, followed by the San Jacinto, Susquehanna, Mount Vernon, Seminole, and Dacotah. It was a most beautiful sight, and attracted a throng of spectatory. boat has arrived, bringing the following dewith the Mayor, W. W. Lamb, and a committee of the city comments of th mittee of the city government. The last credit the announcement that the Merriof the rebel troops left this morning. and mac had been destroyed, and as they passthe city was left, by Gen. Huger, in the care of the Mayor, as the representative of the civil power. On the approach of our troops the Mayor went with a flag of truce endeavoring to outvie the other; and when nearing the wharf the radient countenance of Captain Case, of the Minnesota, gave Zouave, Capt. Phillips, which figured so nobly in the fight with the Merrimac on her first appearance. were courteously invited to accompany him on the expidition. We were soon on the way, and in a short time overtook and passed all the vessels of war that had started in advance of us except the Monitor and Nangatuck, which were moving ahead on their way to Norfalls having passed by Sangli's Paint or an expectation.

Solution of the latter, waited until the rebel monster was within twenty pards, when he fired a broadwith the moving ahead on their way to Norfalls having passed by Sangli's Paint or an expectation.

Solution of the latter, waited until the rebel monster was within twenty pards, when he fired a broadwith the moving ahead on their way to Norfalls having passed by Sangli's Paint or an expectation. Richmond otemporaries have not yet decided. That they are gone, however, an ever to return in an official capacity, is quite enough for present consideration. If they ever hoped to return, the news of McClellan's triumphant occupation of the city will dissipate that pleasing though preposterous conception.

McClellan's triumphant occupation of the being misportane with much Christian the first instinction; the Picaymuc of April 28th, and expected the superior specially not with a wiew to party policy of any kind with a view to party policy of any kind and expected the superior specially not the present consideration. The press of New Orleans seems to take their misportune with much Christian resignation; the Picaymuc of April 28th, and expected the superior specially not with a present in the control of the committee. The meeting in the pression is the Picaymuc of April 28th, and expected that, in the formation of the committee, to get in an experiment of the world and reported to be defended by a spint to the first hard to be first behalf of the fact of the fact of the shell of the committee. The meeting has been made and there are steadily most in the safety near allow of the world and reported to be defended by a position was made and the fortifications, which were signing the strength of the present consideration. The only signs of life that he shell produced was the appearance of the Mallory. While the engagement between the Mallory was completed to bail off, the strength of the world and reported to be defended by a position was made and the fortifications, which were a steady of the strength of the world and reported to be defended by a position was made and the fortifications, which were a steady of the strength of the Mallory. While the engagement between the Mallory was completed to bail off, the strength of the world with the fact of the shell with the fortifications, which were a steady of the world with the fact of the Mallory. While the constraints of the Mallory. While the engagement between the hant commander rushed to the flagstaff and the halliards being in good order, the old flag was soon given to the breeze.

The forts on the island are in four o separate sections, constructed with the best engineering skill, and of most ad irable workmanship. They were left in mirable workmansnip. They were left in admirable condition, and they were left in admirable haste, as were also the exten admirable haste, as were also the exten ter the Mallory, and shortly afterwards she were also the exten ter the Mallory, and shortly afterwards she were also the exten ter the Mallory, and shortly afterwards she were also the exten ter the Mallory, and shortly afterwards she

NORFOLK, Va., May 10.—The occupation of the cities of Norfolk and Portsquiet in front, the enemy having retired. Pittsburgh, April 14th, 1862

THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAPHS

PARTICULARS OF THE INCOUNTER BITWEEN Nothing definite had been heard from THE CUNBOAT PLEATS. Rebels Repulsed with Heavy Loss on Saturday morning eight of their gunon Saturday morning eight of their gun-boats came around a point above the fort and boldly advanced towards the flotilla.

They Lose Three Gunboats. IMPORTANT FROM THE TENNESSFE.

The Cincinnati, which was stationed at staction.

At the request of the President, Capt.
Case immediately proceeded to Craney
Island, to ascertain if the works were evacing hot water from the steam batteries of ing hot water from the steam batteries of the Cincinnati.

The enemy is strengthening his the Cincinnati, and the damage done to her that serious overtures have been made by was so slight that it can be repaired in twenthe French Cabinet to Lord Palmesson, was so slight that it can be repaired in twenty four hours. Four men on her were wounded, including the master's mate.—

which according to official information just which according to official information just termina.

sive barracks which had accommodated during the winter a garrison of over 4.000 men. There were supplies of amminition

The steamers Courier and City of Alton the two Governments are seriously think.

NEW MARKET, Va., May 11.—The news of our success at Norfolk and Portsmouth, and the destruction of the Merrimac was received with intense enthusiasm among the troops. The army bands played the National airs, and the loud and prolonged cheering awoke the mountain echoes which were heard for miles along the beautiful valley. The only regret expressed were that each officer and soldier was not present to participate in accomplishing such ent to participate in accomplishing such Two privates of the Vermont cavalry

The regimental clerk of the 2d Massa chusetts regiment, was mortally shot yes-terday from the woods near Mount Jack-son. It is believed that many countrymen who come into camp to settle accounts with the Quartermaster, are giving infor-mation to the rebels, if not in active serv ice themselves.

Several arrests have been made to-day of Ricamond. Mew York, May 12 .- A dispatch from re to the Times says :

Cha. McClellan is now within twenty ile of Richmond. the Galena and the gunboats on the James River. One of the latter was reported to have been lost. A dispatch from Parkersburg to the Times, says: The two guerrilles recently captured were hung at Chester on the 9th inst.

General's Schenck and Milroy are mafe HEADQUARTERS, CUMBERLAND, VA., Sunday Evening, May 11.

CAIRO, May 11.—The desperation of the to-day, as General M'Clellan was desirous rebel cause in Mississippi culminated yesterday in an attack on the flotilla. Early on Saturday maring sight of stationary.

The reports to-day, brought in by scout-

There had been no general en although the two armies were threatening defenses to defeat our army. An immense force of negroes are at work felling trees and strengthening the earthworks.

were moving ahead on their way to Norfolk, having passed by Sewall's Point and the folk of the second Connected Connected the second connected the second and preparations for battle are be on a grand scale. Roads are being cut in the woods to Fairlittle to move the differ-

No other casualties are mentioned.

When the smoke cleared away, a broadWhen the smoke cleared away, a broad-

St. Petersburg, Russia, May 1st.—The Journal, of St. Petersburg, doubts the probability of the Western powers interfering with America.

Paris, May 1.—The French Press states that negotiations with the object of a dip-lomatic intervention of maritime powers in America, and the recognition of the Two privates of the Vermont cavalry in America, and the recognition of the were captured yesterday by guerrillas near the spot where the Ira Harris Guard's were the spot where the Ira Harris Guard's were shot.

In America, and the recognition of the principal States of Europe, have been carried on between Paris and Instruction of the private of the tions in this sense had been sent to M. Mercier, the French Minister at Washington, when the late battle is said to have decided France from intervention at the present.

mation to the rebels, if not in active service themselves.

Several arrests have been made to day of suspicious persons, among others are youth of fifteen, said to belong to Harper's Ferry, whose brothers are in Ashby's cavalry. The result of the investigation was not divided. The ladies who were examined yesterday for complicity in the murder of two of the Harris Guards, are reported to have deserted their house last night.

The Pennsylvania Weunded. Harrissurge, May 12—The wounded Pennsylvanians in charge of Surgeon General Smith from Williamsburg and Yorkton, will arrive in Philadelphia on the 14th inst., where Hospitals are prepared to receive them.

One hundred and eighteen sick arrived in Philadelphia to day, in charge of Commissary General Irwin and A. W. Sees, E. G. Thirteen were left at Bedloo's Island and fourteen in New York hospitals in charge of a Pennsylvania Surgeon, and are well cared for. These will be remayed as soon as they are in a proper condition.

The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water was at they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water was at they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water was at they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water was they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water was they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water well eared for. These will be remayed as soon as they are in a proper condition. The conveyance of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water well as General the nomination of Daniel from the proper of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water well as the proper of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water to be a proper of the wounded from New York to Philadelphia was by water to be a proper LIVERPOOL, May 1. The steamship City