DATEY POST. SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 17.

CITY AND HEIGHDOREOOD INTELLIGENCE.

Our Sick and Wounded Soldier ----Meeting for their Relief.

Parsuant to call a number of our prom-inent citizens assembled at the Merchants' inent citizens assembled at the Merchants' Exchange yesterday, to take such meas-ures as are necessary for the case of the sick and wounded from this vicinity in the army of the Peninsula. The meeting was called to order by Thos. Bakewell, Esq., taking the chair, and the reporters of the press present were chosen Secretaries 2. He has now the sum of $18.414 70-

Mr. Jas. I. Bennett stated the object of the meeting and moved the appointment of a committee, consisting of Capt. C. W. Batchelor,, Wm. Morrison and B. Pres-ton, to go East and minister to the wants of our soldiers. The committee were in-vested with power to substitute other gen-glemen for any one unable to go. State of the debt of the gradual extinguishment Mr. Jas. I. Bennett stated the object of that Governor Curtin had commissioned Springer Harbaugh, Esq., of this city, to proceed to Pittsburgh Landing, with two surgeons. This commission was to start resterflay and will attend to the wants of that purpose. The amount appropriated by ordinance of January 28, 1861, was not the Pennsylvania troops there.

D. P. Lowary, Esq., stated that a letter at that time paid in, nor has it since been had been received here from J. H. Shoen paid in, and therefore the sum of $9,012, berger, Esq., setting forth that there are now lying at Savannah, Tenn., over 5,000 sick and wounded soldiers; that 1,100 of these had recently been taken to Cincinuati, leaving 3,300 in hospitals there. The boats had returned to Savannah for more oldiers and the Sanitary Commission of Cincinnati called on ours to furnish stores and supplies. On motion of Mr. Bennett, Jomes Park,

Jr., Robt. C. Loomis and Jos. R. Hunter were appointed a committee to see the let-ter and if they considered it of sufficient importance to have it published. A Finance Committee was also created, composed of Thomas Bakewell, James I. Bennett, Jas. Park, Jr., S. F. Von Bonnhorst and Jos. R. Hunter, to raise the nec essary funds for the purpose named above. After some further remarks, in which it was stated that after the 1st of July, Dix-mount-Hospital, capable of accommoda-ting three to four hundred patients, would eighty patients cau be provided for at the Marine Hospital, twenty-five or thirty at the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, and various numbers at other institutions, the meeting adjourned.

The members of the committee appointofficers. ed to visit the East are requested to report at the Custom House whether or not they will be able to go. We are reluctantly obliged to state that the above meeting was attended by only twelve persons and these are the gentlewho have from the beginning interested themselves in the care of the sick and wounded. As we have before intiand wounded. As we have before inti-mated, the burden of this work should not be permitted to fall on a few; it is the duty of every humane citizen to aid in such a cause, and we are astonished at such appar-ent apathy on the part of those who should be taking an active part. We hope that the liberality of contributions may not be measured by the attendance at this meet, not state what disposition has been made at the next assemblage of this character may have more the appearance of a sym-Pittsburgh in my hands, possession or conpathetic meeting of the people than a caucus or committee meeting.
