menced retreating.
We reached the shore opposite Williamsport, a distance of thirty seven miles on Sunday night.

Gen. Banks' command, including Captains Morgan's and Foulk's companies are now in: Williamsport.

The wounded in Ben. Morgan's company are John Dunwoody, Sergeant D. B. Nelson, W. H. Sterling, Corporal D. C. Dake, Charles Shankle.

Charles Shankle.

In Capt. W. S. Foulk's company, private F. Dougherty, A. Richey and Daniel Scott. None were killed in either.

The killed, wounded and missing in the 46th regiment, Col. Knipe, are about one hundred and twenty-five.

Capt. Hampton, Sergeant D. A. Stewart, W. Lafferty, Cornelius Roof, Hiram Neely, John McAleese. Albert Evans, Milton Slophey, John Hanshaw, John Pierce, Garrison W. Lacey, Wm. H. Cappie, John Smiley, James Stockhouse, John Harrison, John James and M. Keck were taken prisoners, with battery, wagon, forge, and two baggaget wagons oners, with battery, wagon, torge, and two

lagrage wagons. Lieut. Atwell, of Knap's battery, has arrived in Williamsport with thirteen men. The Art of Glossing Lineus. The mystery of giving to linen collars and shirt bosoms a gloss like that on new linen is thus explained by an exchange 'This gloss, or enamel as it is sometime called, is produced mainly by friction with called, is produced mainly by friction with a warm iron, and may be put on linen by almost any person. The linen to be glazed in receives as much strong starch as it is possible to charge it with; then it is dried. To each pound of starch a piece of sperm, parafine, or white wax, about the size of a walnut, is usually added. When ready to be ironed, the linen is laid unon the table paraffine, or white wax, about the size of a walnut, is usually added. When ready to be ironed, the linen is laid upon the table and moistened very slightly on the surface with a clean wet cloth. It is then ironed in the nanal way with a flat iron, and is ready for the glossing operation. in the usual way with a flat iron, and is ready for the glossing operation. For this purpose a peculiar heavy flat-iron, rounded at the bottom and polished as bright as a mirror, is used. It is pressed firmly upon the linenand rubbed with much force, and this frictional action puts on the gloss.

"Elbow grease" is the principal secret selling carbon oil by sample, without livense. Victor Hugo's Old Novel. The story of "Les Miserables," a novel by Victor Hugo, just issued from the press of Carleton, New York, hasbeen well ventillated. The author's first novel, "Notre Dame de Paris," was accepted on condition the first he publisher should bring out all Hugo's after productions. It made the fortune of the printer, who, on Hugo presenting him the manuscript of "Les Miserables" offered him a mere song for it, which he refused to take. Year after year he repeated his offer to the publisher, each year increasing the price, and now.

Samuel Moody, a member of Company K, Fourth regiment of the Sickles Brigade, and a Pittsburger, who was wounded at of others is now in New York city.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Jos. Fleming in another column. Everything in the drug and preserved to take. Year after year he repeated his offer to the publisher, each year increasing the price, and now.

each year increasing the price, and now, when the book is twenty five years old and the death of Hago's tyrant leaves him and the death of Hago's tyrant leaves him free to dispose of the manuscript to others, he has sold it for $80,000. The work is a powerful fiction, called "Fantine" and has created an immense furore in Europe. Carleton's translation is for sale here by Henry Miner, Fifth street, next door to the Postoffice.

At Home. Thomas Ewens, son of R. B. Ewens, book binder, wounded in the thigh at Williamsburg, while fighting with his company, the Friend Rifle Guards, arrived at home yesterduy. Robert M'Clelland, of the same company, wounded in the mouth the same company, wounded in the mouth, has been at home for several days. A ball struck him in the mouth, knocking out several of his front teeth, and passed out through his cheek. Both the young men are doing well.

Prayer Books for Soldiers. Bishop Potter has recommended to every congregation in the diocese to make an annual contribution to the treasury of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, and Whitsanday, the 8th of June, has been selected as the day. The money thus raised is to be used in the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer among the soldiers—particularly amongst the prisoners of war at Chicago and Columbus.

Our people had been without any amusement of this character for nearly a year and were consequently on the qui vive for a really good Ethiopian entertainment, such as is given by this company. They sing and play well, their jokes and witticisms are capital and their melange "rough and tumble comic spree, &c.." take down the house nightly. The Theatre is being well patronized by the lovers of negro well patronized by the lovers of negro minstrelsy and deservedly so.

The Union Cavalry.

A dispatch from Capt. John H. Stewart, of the Union Cavalry, formerly in command of Capt R. H. For several years there has appeared no first-rate humorous boos from the American press, and a good one at this time, when the community is craving for something wherewith to dispel the depression into which it has been plunged, will be welcomed by every one. Many of the irredictibly fanny letters of the immortal "Artenus Ward," have become familiar by being copied and re-copied in the newspapers of the day; others, however, have escaped the eye of the reader, and an attempt has been made in this volume to collect the best, and to issue them in one handsome volume, splendidly illustrated. Piles Cured by Brandreth's Pills
Dr. B. Brandreth—Dear Sir : I was suf fering for many years from hereditary hemorrhoi-dal affections, of which I had the first attack in 1846. Since that time I was regularly visited with such complaints every spring. I felt in the morning a most severe pain in the back, as if the lower oints of the spine were broken or bruised, and an asthmatic pressure on the chest. Owingto my oc-cupation which keeps me all day busy out of doors, and entirely distrusting any so called "regular treatment" that would have confined me to my house, I thought of following a plan of my own, which might cure me without the inconvenience to my business attending the treatment of a "regular practitioner." So I put an Alloock's Plaster right over the groin, renewing it every fortnight; every Saturday night I took a dose of Brandreth's Pills, three or four, as I thought neces ry to a dose, which operated on me after getting could attend to my business without interruption; I worked, ate and drank as I was wont, slept most soundly and awaked every day with less pain, and now I know nothing of the complaint at all, so that now I know nothing of the complaint at all, so that I feel obliged to make you this statement for proper use, hoping that this simple proceeding may benefit many as it has done me.

I am dear sir, Yours most respectfully.
