THE GREAT BATTLE BEFORE RICHMOND.

The telegraph having failed to bring us intelligence of the late battle before Richmond, on Saturday and Sunday last, and knowing the intense anxiety of our citizens to learn the details of these bloody engagements, we shall publish several columns of special correspondence from the scene of action. which we will issue in an extra at 102 o'clock this morning.

THE EXTENSION OF GEN. Liberia. McCLELLAN'S COMMAND ... THE ABOLITIONISTS.

President Lincoln, it appears, has abs lutely taken command of our war matters He extended the Military Department of Virginia so as to include all territory south of the Rappahannock, and east of the lived. ericksburg Railroad, and all this is now under the command of General McClellan The promulgation of this order by the President is bailed with general applauin Washington.

We have in this act another evidence of the fairness and patriotism of the President, if left to his own convictions of right and duty. Abolitionism has him homogein, however, in every department, so that he is unable to accomplish much in appe sition to their exactions. But the time seems to be rapidly approaching when is will be compelled to yield to them antirely, or cast them off forever. And they, too. seem determined upon their own course; the total annihilation of slavery, or the destruction of the Government. Here is an additional eridence of it; Our readers are aware that the Presidenhas appointed Mr. Stanley-Military Governor of the State of North Carolina. The instructions given to him by the Presidenwere to administer the laws of the State precisely as they were before the rebellion began; thus recognizing the doctrine that no State had been destroyed because of the lawless acts of a portion of her citizens. When Mr. Stanley arrived at Newbern, he found an Abolitionist doing great mischief among the ignorant and prejudiced, and who was concealing his rea intentions in the State by the thin partition of being a negro school teacher. Mr. Stanley ordered this teacher to cease plying his vocation. As soon as this news reached Washington, Senator Sumner noticed it in the Senate, and John Hickman, in the House, by both introducing resolutions calling upon the President to inform Congress the nature of the instructions given by him to Mr. Stanley.

plain; it is to coerce the President into the adoption of the extreme opinions of those who introduced them. It is an attempt to embarrass the President in his effort to hring back North Carolina to the Union:

| It is an attempt to part of the latter's policy to send the hring back North Carolina to the Union: | It is an attempt to part of the latter's policy to send the part of the community: | It is an attempt to part of the latter's policy to send the would ask how much longer is the daily to support their power, which is waning and denouncing our generals, who are and for this Sumner and Hickman are smong white men. This was not the time more guilty of treason to the government to give an inch to those who would take an and the Union than if they refused to vote supplies for carrying on the contest against the rebels. The time is approaching when equality of the races. the President will be compelled to either yield to these disunionists, or by a vigorous stroke crush them forever. The great fear, indeed, of a restoration of the Union. is from this set of fanatics. Their thin disguise will be soon thrown off, when they will proclaim their eternal hostility to any Union unless it be one of their own construction. Listen to that pioneer of Abolitionism, Wendell Phillips, upon the President's late proclamation recalling Hunter's order; he is but the avant courier announcing the intentions of his followers.

He said: "The President, with servile, lick-spittle haste, runs before he is bidden to revoke the Hunter proclamation. If Hunter had issued a pro-slavery proclamation, be sure the government would have waited for red the government would have waited for red tape. It showed the old pro-slavery lean-ing of the government. Mr. Phillips be-lieved that President Lincoln's decree in lost a quarter of the chances of preserving What were the anti-slavery people to do now? They must educate public opinion, that was all, and force the government up to the proper auti-slaver

English Money.

A Baltimore letter in the New York stroyed. Post states that new events have come to light which show that English money of the rebel soldiery on the fields of the Peninsula but the pockets contained English silver. Last fall, English Bank of England notes were very common in Richmond amongst the rebel magnates.

THE President has ordered a Military many, numbering in all 407, reached New Commission to meet in July for the trial editors and letter writers who have viof editors and letter writers who have vi-olated orders in the publication of war news. Gen. Kearsey and Cols. Taylor is to be five inches thick above the water and Craig will be members.

HORACE GREELEY.

This monster, or prodigy, seems to have been scaled, in his nativity, the very slave of nature; he was thrown upon the world scarcely half made up, and that so lamely and unfashionably, that, it is said, "dogs bark at him as he halts by them." At his birth lamentations were heard in the air; the raven croaked; hideous tempests shook down trees; the earth was feverish and did shake. It was evident that something astounding was about being accomplished: and there was. A man was born unto the world, who for twenty-five years has been ts scourge and torment. Every subtle cheme, calculated to corrupt society, has always found in him a champion. Commencing with Fourierism, he soon adbasenesa. Perdition indeed seems to have cast him upon the earth, to be its bane and ninister. His abolition conspiracy broke nauguration of abolitionism; his virulent buse of everything not abelitionised, has poisoned the minds of his followers to such n extent that nothing short of aniversal esolation and wholesale negro emancipaion in the South, will satisfy their wollish cravings. Having corrupted human nature itself, and sown the steds of beating discord in a once happy and prosperou country, this fiend has, at length had access to the pulpit, there, if passible, to defile and corrupt the teachings of the Bible. Taking advantage of the indisposition of the Rev. Dr. Chapin. Greeley has crowded himself into his pulpit. accountability being feared hereafter.

BATTLE BEFORE RICHMOND.

The N. Y. Tribune on McClellar The malignity of that abolition, traiton ous combination of scoundrels who contro the New York Tribune, toward General McClellan, is utterly astounding. In their issue of Monday, when the entire country except the cold-blooded wretches of the Tribune school) was rejoicing over our FIVE TO TEN THOUSAND mistage at Richmond, and painfully awaiting the details of the battle, which after wards announced the death of some we all loved, this vile sheet, the Tribune, contained the following: The Reverse Before Richmond.

"The news from the army before Richfond, which we publish this morning, though not disastrous, is not cheerful. vanced to Communionism, or free love be surprised again, by a superior force, if not an evidence of a want of careful gene ralship on our side, is, at least, a proof that the enemy is over vigilant, and never minister.
